

The Spanish cabinet has resigned.
Yellow fever is said to be raging at Porto Rico.

The report that Sir Julian Pauncefote is to remain at Washington as the British Ambassador will give as much satisfaction in England and Canada as in the United States. Sir Julian has been eminently successful at Washington.

Mexico will bring out its first series of pictorial stamps shortly, an especially attractive design having been chosen. The various denominations will represent the growth of mail transport in Mexico, advancing from man and mule to stage and railway.
