BOOKS THAT EVERY TEACHER & SCHOOL LIBRARY SHOULD POSSESS

Books on the WAR are legion, but there are very few books on the PERSONALITIES that have been and are still identified with the activities of the War. Mr. A. G. Gardiner has established an international reputation through his character sketches that have appeared in "The Daily News" of London for some years and the best of which are to be found in:—

"WAR LORDS"

"PROPHETS, PRIESTS AND KINGS"

"PILLARS OF SOCIETY"

Illustrated cloth bound books, silk book mark 50c. each. The Three will be sent to any bona fide teacher or library for $1.25 postage paid.

Another book of CHARACTER SKETCHES but of CANADIANS. By Augustus Bridle [Managing Editor of "The Canadian Courier"] who has been aptly styled "The Gardiner of Canada". The book has 34 Biographical Sketches, 16 illustrations from Original Drawings. By F. Challener, O.S.A., R.C.A., and the Ontario College of Art. Cloth bound, Published at $1.50; we have a few left, which we will send to bona fide teachers at 85c. postage paid.

A book that has the hearty endorsement of The Ontario Department of Education

"THE POST OF HONOUR"

The most successful educational book of the year.

It contains stories of daring deeds done by men of the British Empire in the Great War. Many told in their own words, and and others edited and retold by that skilful story-teller, Dr. Richard Wilson. Cloth bound and illustrated 25c., postage 5c.
