Newest styles of dress goods, at Bean & Gee's.

Can this balmy weather be Indian summer?

It is said that Lady Dufferin will acompany Princess Louise to Canada.

Accident.—Mr. Wm. Martin of Mornington had the misfortune to be thrown from his wagon while at Tyrone one day last week, sustaining injuries of a very serious nature. His spine was fractured by the fall. It is feared that his injuries may prove fatal.

AUTUM.—A day in the woods is very pleasant at this season of the year. Nature's dyes are gorgeous and she bestows them lavishly upon her productions, thereby enhancing the beauty of the season. And then the sun shines so beautifully and the air is so bracing that everything tends to make it pleasant for the wood visitor at this time of the year.

Gone West.—During the last few days Mr. Jas Algar and wife and John Algar from Elma, and Mr. David Wark and family from Wallace, in all nine persons, left town by Great Western Railway for Oregon. Mr. J. C. Kidd and Adam Watson jr., also went by same line to Manitoba. Through tickets at lowest rates were obtained from John Livingstone, jr., Town agent Great Western Railway.

Joennalistic.—The Woodstock Review and Sentinel have been consolidated. The Sentinel-Review is the name of the joint paper, and it enters upon its career with a circulation of nearly 6,000 copies. Its management is in the hands of able journalists, Messrs. R. Laidlaw and G. R. & A. Patullo, who no doubt will keep it in the front rank of Canadian weekles. A new weekly journal, the Catholic Record, has made its appearance in London. It aspires to be the Catholic organ of the Diocess of Bondon. The prospectus of The Standard, another London venture, is out. In politics it will be "independent Liberal," which now-a-days may mean almost anything to suit the times. The Tribme is the name of a new claimant for public favor in the County of Grey. It is published at Owen Sound by Mr. J. J. Simpson, formerly of St. Mary's. Temperance is its chief characteristic.

Towx Colnell—A special meeting of the municipal Council of Listowel was called by his worship the Mayor on Monday evening last. Present, Mayor Scott, Reeve Hay, and Councillors Binning, Austin, Freeman, Dillabough, Heppler, Towner, Deavitt and Nichol. After confirmation of minutes of last meeting the subject of granting a license to the Temperance house at the P D & L H Ry station. The nore licenses be recommended to be granted until it can be shown that we have population sufficient to entitle us to another license. It was moved by Dr Nichol, that this Council recommended the granted until it can be shown that we have population sufficient to entitle us to another license. It was moved by Dr Nichol, Patit, Towner, Heppler, Dillabough, seconded by Q Towner, that the country of a stirring business, and a thorusensy Nichol, Deavitt, Towner, Heppler, Dillabough, seconded by Q Towner, that the country of a stirring business, and a thoruse more proposal proposal on Bay street from Victoria street to railway crossing, on condition that the inhabitants on said street pay one-half the cost of building—Carried. It was moved by Dr Nichol, seconded by A S Deavitt, that this Council fully sanctions the building of the fire hall and lock-up as arranged by fire hall committee—Carried. It was moved by Dr Dillabough, seconded by J Heppler, that the road inspector be instructed to build the sidewalk on Elma street on the south side, and that former motion be rescinded—Carried on division: Yeas 5, nays 4. Council adjourned.

Heavy rain storms, with thunder and lightning accompaniments, have visited Listowel this week.

Wanted at the Ontario House, 1,000 tubs of good butter. No Inspection fees to pay. Geo. Draper.

It only takes $6,425 per annum to pay the salaries of civic officials in Stratford. The lamplighter receives twice as much as the Mayor, the latter only getting $200.

Knox Church.—Owing to unforseen circumstances which call Rev Mr. Bel away from home, unexpectedly, there will be no service in Knox Churgh next Sabbath.

Harvest is past, the summer is ended and James Armstrong sells cheaper than ever. Teas, cutlery, crockery, glassware, etc., at greatly reduced prices. Call and be convinced.—36.

Fell Anono Thieves.—W L Trumbull.

Harvest is past, the summer is ended, and James Armstrong sells cheaper than ever. Teas, cutlery, crookery, glassware, etc., at greatly reduced prices. Call and be convinced.—36.

FELL AMONG THEWES.—W L Trumbull, of Mornington, asserts that he was drugged Friday night in a saloon near the Michigan Central Depot, Detroit, after which he was robbed of $150.

Our thanks are due to a very old friend, Mr. Ahdrew Moore, of Wallace, for a bag of apples, left at this office last week. May "old Andie"—who is already a central armstran—"live long and prosper."

Baptist Service—The time of holding service in the Temperance Hall has been altered from 11 a.m to 3 p.m. Service will therefore be conducted by Rev. Mr. McGregor on Sabbath afternoon next at the newly appointed hour.

Last week Messrs. Little Bros. shipped another bus from their carriage works. It was ordered by Mr. Bishop, proprietor of the Woodstock hotel, at Woodstock Ontario. Listowel busses continue to grow in favor as their numbers multiply.

Accident, America, and Reason,"—On Friday evening last, Mr. James Fahey, of the Herald, Stratford, delivered his erudite lecture, "Rhyme and Reason," in the Grand Central Hall here. Owing to the wet weather the attendance was limited. The Mayor, J. W. Scott, Esq., occupied the chair, and in introducing the lecture in an inimitably eloquent manner. The subject matter was rich with historical reminiscence and replete with characteristic humorisms. The entire lecture was intellectual treat, and were it not that Mr. Fahey has signified his willingness to return at some more favorable time the people of Listowel would have lost at the newly appointed hour.

Accident_Mr. Wm. Martin of Mornington had the misfortune to be thrown from his wagon while at Tyrone one day last week, sustaining injuries of a very serious nature. His spine was fractured by the fall. It is feared that his injuries may prove fatal.

MILLBAKK.—Mr. Geo. Magwood has returned from an extended tour to Ireland, where he has spent some months among the friends and scenes of his childhood, and in feeding on the cheerful atmosphere of the right little Emerald Isle.

Hother Mr. Stephen McLean has made application for a tavern license for the temperance hotel at the P. D. & L. H. Ry. depot. It is likely to be granted Mr Thos Headley late of the Grand Central has assumed control of the Dominion hotel, Mr. Chas. Newton retiring from the business.

Auction Sales.—Parties wishing auction sale bills printed on short notice and at most reasonable rates, should call at the Standard Office. Orders sent by post or otherwise will receive prompt attention. Arrangements for sales can be made at this office. Posters will be turned out in first class style, and a free notice given in the newspaper.

Autten.—A day in the woods is very pleasant at this season of the year. Nature's dyes are gorgeous and she bestows them lavishly upon her productions, thereby enhancing the beauty of the season. the sounds of the human voice are repeated "by machinery." The instrument was unfectioned from John Lixingstone, jr. Town agent Great Western Railway.

Dancing Classes.—Prof. Rhodes, of Erie, Pa., purposes opening a dancing class at the Grand Central Hall on Wednesday evening next. We understand that a goodly number of young gentlemen of Listowel have signified their intention of attending. No doubt the opportunity will be a good one for becoming schooled in the Terpsichorean art. The Prof. contemplates organising a select ladies class, also a juvenile class, in the afternoon of each day of school.

Base Ball.—The Browns of Harriston visited Listowel on Tuesday, and played a friendly match with the Red Stockings in the Agrl. Park. Owing to the previous rains, the ground was not in "apple per order," but this did not prevent a very interesting game from taking place. The Browns are a good team and contested the game well. Hunter is an excellent catcher, and their pitcher is by no means an inferior one. The Reds found themselves yretty evenly matched into action in order to control the game. Following is the score.

Listoweki.—Q. R. Harriston, Q. R. Harristons, Q. R sounds of the voice were reproduced as quite distinctly. The articulation of words was accompanied with a slight huskiness, but there was a striking similarity between the operator's voice and the sounds produced by the machine. The same sounds, whether words, phrases, musical tones or audible imitations of any kind, can be reproduced as long as the indentations remain on the foil. Its simplicity is what most astonishes one, and the wonder is that it remained for the inventive genius of Prof. Edison to call it into existence.
