The following interesting letter has been received by a local lady from the Brantford nurse who accompanied the Canadian contingent, and who is now in London awaiting to leave for the front. London, Eng., St. Thomas Hospital, October 26th, 1914. Dear Mrs.— Yesterday I received a letter from you and one to-day sent to Quebec, and one from Lena. Those art to gueber, and one to-day sent to Quebec, and one for Lena. Those art the belong to enclose. You see we were to have going to an to us and it was ours to enjoy. It is so nice to know some one is thinking of me. You are more than good to me. I really don't know how to thank you for everything. You spoke of sending me papers. If you could send me one once in a while I would love to have them. I had such a nice letter from may be calle dat any time. I think I told you in one other letter that we were asked to St. Thomas Hospital for two weeks, and we are having a bould time now. Comparison of the souls who had were asked to St. Thomas Hospital for two weeks, and we are having a lovely time, every one is so nice and kind. The nurses' home is beautiful. Each of us has a separate room look-ing over the Thames. We are just across Westminster Bridge. I will send you a card of the hospital. Every day they are getting the wounded in the hundreds, and some of the terrible atrocities the Germans perpetrate are too terrible to speak of. But do pray for us, dear Mrs. ——; there is only one fear we all have, but we know all our friends, and in fact the whole na-tor fact we whole na-tor tight of the terrible too terrible to speak of. were fearfully ill-treated. Some of the officers were in to see us, but I have not seen any of our own men yet; they are all at Salisbury Plains. I hear some of us are to be sent there for a military training. Every day something is planned for us. The ladies are sending their private cars to take us to various places of inter-go anywhere, and so went to see the to take us to various places of interest. Lady Hanbury Williams sent her car and took four of us to Hampton Court. I can't begin to describe it.

The others of the crew of the Prut saved themselves with small boats, mattresses, life belts, and bits of wreckage, and later-were picked up. After this the Black Sea fleet set out in pursuit of the enemy, who avoided a fight and took refuge at their base in the Bosphorus. "Our losses on the Prut were two officers, a chaplain, twenty-six sailors; on the torpedo boat Leit Pushtchin, seven sailors kill-ed and as many wounded; on the Donets a surgeon killed.
