MARVELLOUS ESCAPE

OF A SUB-CHASER.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Safe arrival at a European port of a 110-foot submarine chaser which had not been heard from since January 15, was announced today by the Navy Department. The little craft was separated from the escort during a terrific gale while bound for Europe. With the engines disabled by the storm, the crew rigged up sails from bed coverings and sailed for thirty-nine days.

No navigating instruments were aboard, but after being blown far off their course the Frenchmen estimated their position and headed for port. To their remarkable seamanship is attributed the success of this voyage.

MONTHLY MEETING OF PARIS COUNCIL

Garbage Collectors Granted No Increase—Toll Roads Question

OTHER NEWS OF PARIS

(From Our Own Correspondent). Paris, Feb. 26.—The monthly meeting of the Town Council was held last night, those being present including Mayor Robinson, Reeve Pitts, Deputy-Reeve Stewart, Ald. Blake, McKay, McCammon, Paine, Walker and Wooler.

The minutes of the last regular and special meeting were read and confirmed.

A communication was read from Mr. Michael Dowling, stating that the water from Main street and adjacent places flooded his property, filling his cellar, and last week there were twelve inches of water over his kitchen floor. This was referred to a committee to investigate.

On motion of Reeve Pitts and Ald. McKay, it was decided that no action be taken in regard to the request of the garbage collector for an increase of salary.

On motion of Ald. Wooler and Paine, the sum of $200 was granted the band, they to give twelve concerts in King's Ward Park during the summer.

On motion of Ald. McCammon and Paine, it was decided not to continue with the telephone service at the G.R. tower. The Bell Telephone Company notified the Council that the contract for same would be increased to $8 or more on a new contract, and that the time expired on March 31st.

A communication was read from Mr. Albert Bee, stating he would purchase the corrugated iron building at town hall for $15 and he would remove same. On motion of McCammon and Paine, it was decided not to accept the offer.

On motion of Ald. Blake and McKay, a number of accounts were ordered to be paid.

A communication was read from the sanitary contractor, suggesting that the cost of collection for householders as much time was lost collecting same. This was referred to the Board of Health.

On motion of Deputy-Reeve Stewart and Ald. Paine, the Streets and Sidewalk Committee were authorized to purchase streets and roads required for streets during the coming season.

On motion of the Reeve and Ald. McKay, the minutes of the public meeting held recently in regard to the purchase of Brantford and Cockshutt roads, also resolution of citizens passed favoring purchase of above were authorized to be recorded in the minutes.

The auditor's report on books and vouchers of clerk and treasurer was read, showing to be O.K. and kept in splendid condition.

It was decided to do away with the assistance of the Fuel Controller, on account of milder weather, and as the coal shortage had been much improved around town.

The Mayor paid a sign necessary papers in connection with the leasing of the hall by Messrs. Wheeler and son. The council then adjourned.

Last night's storm was certainly one of the worst in history of Paris and the heavy torrents of rain soon turned the streets into rivers, while the water from the hills poured down in a perfect torrent. Many cellars were badly flooded and few escaped without some water in. The corporation men and a number of firemen were working for several hours to relieve the situation. In Upper Town a family by the name of Dowling had to be taken away from their home in a dray, from the windows of the Paris Station all the low lying districts were inundated and much damage done.

A very sudden death occurred Saturday morning, one mile south of Falkland, on Mr. J. Cassidy's bush. Mr. Stacey Miller, a man 64 years of age, went with his son and a neighbor to get wood for their home. While his son was loading the sleigh, Miller undertook to help on the cross cut saw, but the third or fourth stroke he fell over unconscious and died within a few minutes. He had an apopleptic stroke some time ago and was seized with another on Saturday, which caused his death. A widow and family are left to mourn his loss. The remains were laid at rest in the Paris Cemetery this afternoon.

A right jolly time was spent at the residence of Mrs. John Kempthorne last evening, when a number of friends paid her a surprise visit to bid farewell to her daughters, Mrs. A. Tom and Miss C. Kempthorne, who left this afternoon for their home at Queenston, Alta., after spending the past three months in town.

The evening was spent in games and music, and light refreshments were served before leaving.

FATHER KELLY

The American Padre in France

By Patrick MacGill, author of "The Great Push," etc.

The mess-sergeant was annoyed, and being annoyed he said angry words as he sat in front of the field kitchen and smoked his pipe of American plug. In such a humor I found him as I went for my walk on the French town which an American Brigade was stationed.

I had met the mess-sergeant before. In fact he had invited me several times to breakfast in his hut. I was pleased with the invitation and took full advantage of his kindness. Breakfast in the hotel at which I was staying was on the Continental plan, embracing much more expensive than coffee and bread.

"You do not seem to be in good humor, sergeant," I said as I came up to the field kitchen.

"It's that Father Kelly, the Catholic chaplain who has annoyed me," said the mess-sergeant. "He came to me this morning just when breakfast was at an end. 'Can I hold service in the dining shack?' he asked me. 'I thought that you were going to do the business in the recreation room. The carpenters are busy there now, putting in a new platform for the concert to-morrow night,' said the priest. 'Well, you can have this shack,' I said. 'I'll bustle the cooks a bit and get them to make things for the dining shack.'"

"But I thought that you were going to do the business in the recreation room. The carpenters are busy there now, putting in a new platform for the concert to-morrow night," said the priest. "Well, you can have this shack," I said. "I'll bustle the cooks a bit and get them to make things for the dining shack." I said. so much that he took it down and washed it with brown soap and hot water.

But that's Father Kelly right through. He would send the robes on the figure on the Statue of Liberty to a laundry.

"He went up with the battalion to the trenches the other day, went out with the men on a wiring party, and felt very sorry that he was a chaplain without arms when the Germans attacked the party. On the next morning when the row was at an end it was discovered that a wounded German was lying in No Man's Land. The Hineys were sweeping our parapet with machine guns, and it was dangerous for a man to put his head over the sand-bags. Suddenly, however, a man, who was looking through a periscope, noticed a figure crawling out from our line towards the wounded man. This crawling figure was an American soldier. It was Father Kelly. He got to the German, lifted him on his shoulder and carried him in. Even the Germans were surprised at the act that they forgot to fire until the chaplain got back again to safety."

"Our Colonel went up to Father Kelly when he came in.

"Why the mischief did you risk your life in such a manner, Father?" he asked. "It was a crazy thing to do."

"But think of the exposure to infection of this man's wounds," Father Kelly said. "From a hygienic point of view, the only thing to be done was to carry the man in."

LABORITES RAMPANT

By Courier Leased Wire

Sydney, N. S. W., Feb. 27.—(via Reuters's Ottawa agency)—The legislative assembly, by a vote of 32 to 11, carried Premier Holman's motion, congratulating Sir Walter Davidson on his succession to the governorship. The Labor members protested, contending that the office of
