The infectious disease hospital purchased from Mr. A. B. Mennie is a very comfortable one, and on Tuesday it was occupied by the latest case to break out here. Mr. Ephraim Peck is the nurse in charge, and Mr. Howard Taylor is the patient, not Welton as reported on Tuesday. Mr. Taylor is much pleased with his surroundings and his case is not likely to be a bad one. A telephone has been put in the hospital so that all wants may be immediately known.

Mr. W. Hieatt, of the above firm, is now over here, travelling the Valley for consignments of apples. They received a large quantity last year. The English apple crop is very short, so should be a great inducement for growers to ship.

CORRESPONDENCE

Mr. Editor.—I should like to kindly inform the outside public that my little boy has not had Smallpox and wonder how they knew so well what he had as I did not call them in at the time he was taken sick. Perhaps if the parties that knew so much about us being quarantined and that my mother and sister were not allowed in, would tell me where they got their valuable information, instead of circulating it so freely, they might be more correct in their reports as they have put us to quite a lot of inconvenience.
Mrs. Lewis Ellis.
