Mr. B. N. Jordan, of Somerville, Mass., is visiting in town, guest of his niece, Mrs. P. Holmes.

WANTED.—At once, a good general maid. Apply to Mrs. W. C. B. HARRIS, Wolfville.

Miss P. Smith, accompanied by Miss Freda McQuarrie, spent the holidays at her home in Kingston, and also attended the Aylesford Races.

Mr. Chesley Mosher, who graduated from Mt. Allison University, Sackville, at the recent commencement exercises, returned to his home in Kentville last week.

Miss Lottie Spford, who has been a Missionary under the Canadian Board, and has been stationed at Vizianagram, India, arrived in Kentville last week and is a guest of Mrs. R. H. Lambton.

Harold Pelton and sister, Miss Bernice, accompanied by Miss Evelyn Morton, of Berwick, spent the recent holidays most enjoyably with the former's cousin, Miss Leah Harris, Sheffield Mills.

Mr. Harold P. Brown of the D. A. R., and wife spent the week end in Truro, guests of his parents Conductor and Mrs. C. E. Brown, Havelock St. Mr. Brown returned to Kentville Monday, Mrs. Brown remaining in Truro for the week.

Freeman Morton, of Lakeville, had the misfortune of having the leg of his valuable black mare broken on Tuesday last while attending the races at Aylesford. Drs. Chipman and Wood were summoned to attend. We are glad to say that the mare is progressing very favorably.

The "County Sheriff" put on at "The Nickel Theatre", Friday evening of last week, drew a packed house of pleased patrons. The management have a number of other popular attractions booked, including the well known "Colonial Stock Co", on June 12th, 13th, and 14th, and August 2nd, they have a treat in store for their patrons, when they will present the celebrated play "Seven Hours in New York." This company is made up of 40 artists, and Kentville is the only town in the county at which they will stop en route to Halifax for a week.

Rev. Geo. McMillan who has been ill for some time has tendered his resignation as pastor of St. Paul's Peshytern church on account of his continued illness. Mr. McMillan has been a most successful pastor and the finances of the church have been wonderfully improved. We feel sure there are few churches in the provinces in which the amount of contributed per family exceeds that of Mr. McMillan's congregation. He has been prominent in all good work and much esteemed by all denominations. All will regret to hear that his health is not improving. Rev. Mr. McMillan left on a visit to Pictou Co., this week.
