and the Ottawa Committee recently organized to further the Federal prohibition movement.

The resolution, in effect, determines the wording of that which will be introduced in the commons later in the session.

A committee was appointed to wait on the cabinet and ask that the government facilitate passage of the resolution and follow it up with legislation

At the instance of the committee on Federal prohibition, which is seeking to force the issue in parliament, the resolution was altered to ask for prohibition during the war and for a "reconstructive period of at least three years thereafter, and until repealed by vote of the people."
