GEO. G. HUTCHESON & CO.

We want to engage your attention about our Dress Goods Stock. If you have any thought of buying a dress you ought to see it. We are told repeatedly that there is nothing like them in Brockville for style and value. Ladies are good judges, and when they pass judgment it is generally correct. We have all the new makes and styles in Dress Goods, and some lovely new patterns in Challies. We will show the stock with pleasure.

Our stock of Spring Carpets has all arrived. As usual it is the largest selection you will see in this section, probably twice as large as any other stock. It comprises all grades of Brussels, Tapestry, Wool, Union and Hemp Carpets, also Velvet Carpets, Mattings, Carpet Squares with border all around, and Floor Oilcloths. Tapestry Carpets range from 80c, to $1.00 per yard. Brussel Carpets at 85c., 95c., $1.00, $1.10 to $1.25. Borders to match a great many patterns. Also Stair Carpets. Prices guaranteed as low or lower than the same quality of goods con be bought for, either in Brockville or in the cites. We tell no fables about our goeds; we guarantee them as represented or money refunded. We solicit the favor of a call of inspection. Carpetl aying and making attended to when desired.

**Me congratulate the correspondent of Frankville to the Recorder on his one things which transpire in this vicinity day of the rules of syntax before making any further attempts at compositions.

Miss Mary Moore, formerly teacher here, spent Saturday and Sunday at Mrs. Jas. W. Brown's.

Mr. Mallory sent away his first cheese boxes for this season last week. An almost nightly deputation from Addison passes through here on their way to Temperance Lake for suckers.

The old mare with the extension stomach is making it lively for the young man at Burr Hill, running away two-or three times this spring.

Some of our young men take exception to my remark last week about the horse and buggy from Athens, but Brank drives a good rig and don't take dust from any of them.

We congratulate the correspondent for Recorder on his one this deciding in forentation of all things which transpire in this vicinity day of all things which transpire in this vicinity and some things that do not), but would recommend a study of the rules of syntax before making any further attempts at compositions.

We have lately an application of the old adage "rain is good for young ducks." Our east end small boy, whose feelings rose above all difficulties, walked some distance to the house of his lady-love in the midst of a rainstorm. We admire his pluck.
