THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., OCT. 25, 1895.

Local and Provincial.

On Tuesday morning Master Arthur Taylor brought into our sanctum a ripe strawberry just picked from his father's garden.

A reception was given by the Y. W. A. of Acadia College, on Friday evening last in College Hall. We understand it was quite an enjoyable affair.

To arrive—schooner Wellman Hall, with a cargo Hard Coal, stove and nut. Those desiring coal should call at once and have orders with.

There was a good attendance at the sale of the Lovett Farm, Brooklyn St., on Saturday afternoon. The bidding was brisk, and the farm was at last purchased by Mr P. Innes, for $1075.

A good Harness for $14.00 at W. Regan's.

The first foot-ball match of the season took place on the campus last Saturday between the Sophomore and cademy teams. The contest was a close one and good playing was exhibited. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of the senior team.

The Halifax medical college has fifty students in attendance this session, the most in its history. The freshman numbers 17. There is a larger number of the older students than ever before. Three lady students are enrolled, in each year except the second.

An effort is being made to organize a singing club. We understand a goodly number have expressed a willingness to assist in making the club a success. This is an institution that is needed in Wolfville and we hope the undertaking may not fall through for want of support.

The following distinguished artists will give a concert to-night in College Hall: Mr Bernard Walther, violinist; Madame Walther, soloist; Miss Barker, soprano; Miss Manning, tenor; and Miss Harcourt, pianist. No one should fail to hear these celebrated musicians.

Largest stock of Rugs in town and lowest prices at W. Regan's.

There was a fair attendance at the meeting of the Bible Society in the Presbyterian church last Friday evening notwithstanding other attractions in town. Dr T. A. Higgins presided. Mr M. MacKellar, the agent of the Society, gave an instructive address, illustrated with a number of excellent illustrations. At the close a collection was taken in aid of the work of the society.

The Pageantide is the title of a neatly gotten up little paper which began publication on Friday last, in the interests of the Kings County Academy. It is from the press of the Western Chronicle, and is conducted by the students of the Academy. Louis E. Newcomb, of Sheffield's Falls, is the editor-in-chief, and he has assistants Fred H. Spinney, of Kings County, and Miss Millicent Chase, of Kentville. The paper will be issued weekly for some time for the school term, and should be encouraged by a liberal patronage.

Don't miss the Grand Concert in College Hall to-night.

Sixty dwellings have been erected this summer in the town of Westville.

By notice in another column it will be seen that it would be a wise move for those in arrears for water rates to call and pay up.

The first snow-storm of the season occurred on Monday. During the day there were several squalls and at times the ground was white in places.

A number of wealthy New Yorkers are negotiating the purchase of land at Mink Cove, Digby County, where they intend to build a $50,000 summer hotel.

Whips from 10c up at W. Regan's.

Mr G. V. Rand is having his old store somewhat remodelled. The part formerly occupied as the post-office has been taken away and the main building lowered about a foot.

There are whispers in the air to the effect that one of our prominent merchants is to be bound in the bonds of matrimony early next month. "Go west, young man, go west."

Mr E. Blackadder, Grand Division lecturer, organised a very promising Band of Hope at Port Williams last Friday afternoon. Miss Laura Brown will be superintendent.

The fall of a burning lamp in the office of the Kentville Advertiser on Wednesday evening caused a small fire which was extinguished. Some damage was done to type, etc.

Don't miss the Turkey Supper and Promenade Concert to be given by the band next Wednesday evening. A good time is assured, and all who can should attend and give the band a lift.

Mr John Hutchinson, of Morris town, has just gathered 14 barrels of cranberries on a bog containing but a little more than one-fourth of an acre. Mr Hind has picked 40 barrels from his bog on the North Mountain.

An immigration station is to be built at Halifax with accommodation for 500 people. Customs office, cable and telegraph offices, ticket offices, dormitories and matron's apartments will all be under one roof, and the disinfecting apparatus will be in an ell.

Among the passengers on the steamer Halifax, which arrived in Halifax Sunday night, were G. W. Soule, of Soule, Dallingham & Co., Boston, expert track layers, with fifteen assistants. They come to start work on track laying on the Halifax electric road. Mr Soule was trackmaster of the West End, Boston.

Of the recent fruit exhibitions in London, the Gardener's magazine says: Messrs Nothard & Lowe, Cotton's wharf, London, sent three dishes of Nova Scotia Gravenstein apples; these fruits had been well packed, and the dish of Bank's or Red Gravenstein was in excellent condition.
