

Phrases.

—Life insurance is a good thing but health insurance, by keeping the blood pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla, is still better.

—The covering is being erected over the fountain in the square to protect it from the winter weather.

—The Public and Park's wharf are lined with Joe boats from Carquet and other places, with fish, vegetables, etc.

—We have this week received two budgets of notes, one from Chelmsford signed Henry, the other from Douglastown neither of which have the name of the writers which we must have before we can publish. Always sign your name, it will be kept strictly private.

—Rev. Mr. McNair complied the pulpit of St. James' Church on Sunday.

—The oyster supper under the auspices of the ladies of the Paragonia Aid Society of the Methodist Church last Friday night was fairly well attended. The proceeds amounted to about $20.

—The temperance lecture in the Mission Hall last Sunday evening was well attended considering the weather. Mr. Baker delivered an eloquent and instructive lecture which was much appreciated by those present.

—It is understood that a heavy claim for damages against the L. C. R. in connection with the washing away of Jones mill near Newcastle, about five years ago, alleged to have been caused by the burning of the L. C. R. reservoir, is to be taken up in the Exchequer court as soon as the Colgate case is disposed of. Engineer Holt has been making a special examination of the place in question with a view to giving testimony in behalf of the reservoir.

—The engine house has had installed a complete system of steam heating which will make that building very comfortable. The steam boiler and radiators are from the Cursey Co. and the work was done by R. L. Maltby of this town. Steam was raised last Saturday and turned on when everything was pronounced satisfactory.

—Messrs. Sargent Bros. have sold their mill at Nelson to Mr. Timothy Lynch.

—Considerable anxiety is felt in shipping circles on the non arrival of the bark Norman, Capt. Burnley, which sailed for this port on Sept. 18th, being now forty-five days out. The barque Corona is also in this river. It is reported that she lost a man overboard shortly after entering and six men put out in a boat to secure the unfortunate sailor but were unable to regain the vessel and landed in an exhausted condition on the shore at Beauséjour. It could not be learned whether the man was picked up or not.

—Hallow's eve passed off quietly. The small boys enjoyed themselves by performing minor tricks, etc., but no damage was done.

—The people of Rotham are agitating telephone connection with Newcastle and we hope that the Telephone Co. will be offered sufficient inducements to run a line up to that place with connection with the various villages along the route.

—Lost—Between the Post Office and J. O. Fish's residence a purse containing a sum of money. The finder will confer a favor by leaving it at the Advocate office, Newcastle.

—Rev. A. F. Brown, of Campbellton, will deliver an address in the Masonic Hall next Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock under the auspices of No. 20, L. O. L. Newcastle. The members will march in regalia, to the hall, headed by the band. A silver collection will be taken at the door.

Merit

Made and Merit Maintain the confidence of the people in Hood's Sarsaparilla. Its medicine cures you when sick; it makes wonderful cures everywhere, then beyond all question that medicine possesses merit.

Made

That is just the truth about Hood's Sarsaparilla. We know it possesses merit because it cures, not once or twice or a hundred times, but in thousands and thousands of cases. We know it cures, absolutely, permanently, when all others fail to do any good whatever. We repeat

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Hood's Pills Biliousness, 25 cents.

Cutlery.

A nice line just opened.
