"Big Jim and Little Jim."

To Editor Queens County Gazette.
DEAR SIR: Having lately arrived home from my winter quarters in the lumber woods, I understand that an untruthful article, under the caption of "Big Jim and Little Jim," appeared in the columns of your valuable journal during my absence from home. Not having been in "Verity" before, I am unable to review at length the many invidious statements made by your "Merry Andrew" contributor who had the audacity to sign himself "VERITAS."

Permit me to state, on behalf of "Big Jim and Little Jim," that we did not meet at the "Whiskies" of the parish. Neither did we procure any "demijohns" at the Queen hotel. We never claimed to be "men of might," neither have we boasted of having performed pugilistic feats as alleged by "Veritas." It would be well for your learned critic and his glib inditer to be more circumspect in future and not display so much economy in regard to the truth, if ever they have occasion to handle anything in the line of this valuable commodity again. The wordy fabrication was so over laden with palpable falsehood that its collapse was assured; but little did they dream that like Haman of old they should come to grief by being hoisted on their own petard.

Verity being busily engaged six days of the week in looking after the almighty dollar, took a vacation on the Sabbath, and for want of better employment started for Chipman, where he fell in with a spirit as thirsty as his own, and by the aid of a little aqua vitae, so readily procured in the village, the twin bubbling over with good cheer, a flow of witty inspiration was spontaneously unloosed within their breasts, inasmuch that the facile pen of "Veritas" was found too unwieldy to transfer to paper the non-ideation as dictated by his oracular friend. Many topics were warmly discussed pro and con and as no temperate cranks were near to witness the downfall of rum, the matter was finally settled that the vision be headed by the title of "Big Jim and Little Jim," thus "flattering themselves into the belief that they had perpetrated a huge joke on two of their neighbors, and vainly trusting that their night's somnolence in the old proverb, "Better the day, better the deed," they could slumbering companion that Sabbath description is harmless in Chipman. So, heedless of the church ringing bell which called the village worshippers together at the hour of prayer, or of the no less earnest appeal of the usurer, pastor as he ministered to the spiritual wants of his congregated flock near by, our muddled friend Verity, revelled in the graceful work of trading, the character of his compass. There was no other things in Heaven and on earth, Verity, than as dreamed of in thy phyllozoa.

"Big Jim."

Newcastle Creek.

April 13.—Mr. J. M. L. Bally has returned home after spending a few days with his friends in Chipman.

The geeps have visited every house in this community and many are suffering from its effects. The young men have started up streams as driving men are scarce and wages are good. Mr. John B. Hawkhurst has a large crew of men to work on the new schooner he is building. Ducks and wild geese are scarce this season.

The neighbors wood piles are pretty well cut up as there has been wood frolics for every day in the week. Mrs. John Sypher has an asparagus in full bloom. Messrs. Samuel and John Munro are busy building boats. They are well known as excellent boat builders and house carpenters.

We are in need of a good doctor in this place. It is a good place for practice. The young folks are anxious to get the Easter number of the Gazette.

April 18.—The remains of Alfred Young, who was killed on a brow of logs in New Hampshire, arrived on the Central train last Tuesday and were interred yesterday at Iron Bound Cove, where the deceased formerly resided. The ice in the Salmon River began to move the first of this week and now the river is pretty clear of ice. The freshet is rising rapidly and all the marsh land and islands are under water. The stream drivers have gone up to break their bows and some of the drivers are already coming down.

The inside of the saw-hill at Bridge Corner has been "chopped" all over and painted this spring. Temporary seats have been supplied for the present, so that the building can be used for public purposes. The hall, which is probably the best in the county, reflects much company upon the company that erected it, and supplies a much felt want in this growing village. The hall is in debt about $100, and the company intend to hold a public entertainment on the 25th of May, to defray expenses incurred this spring.

Mr. Stephen Briggs and his wife have arrived home from Manitoba, where they have spent the last nine months visiting their two daughters in the prairie province.

Ugly rumors are in circulation here, that the Lawrence family, that were burnt to death this spring near Lakeville Corner had met with four play and that the house was set fire to in order to conceal the crime. Oscar Little, who was in the house the night of the tragedy, is said to have cleared out and the authorities were said to be after him. Can anybody throw light on that?

Are You One of Them?

Statistics show that 25 per cent of men and women suffer the torture of itching piles. Investigation proves that Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment has never yet failed to cure itching piles, and all of these men and women need and their sufferings at once by using it. Scores of thousands have been cured by this treatment. Everybody can be cured in the same way.

Mr. Geo. Morgan of Speight Settle most had a narrow escape from instant death on Saturday last at The Men's Brook. Two large logs passed over the top and laid for a stump which raised the logs and made them clear his head he never would have known what happened to him.

"It is not all of life to live; not all of death to die."

Douglas Harbour.

The patriotic meeting held at Douglas Harbour, March 30th, of which notice was given, proved a grand success. Considering the state of the travelling, the attendance was unusually large. The hall was handsomely decorated for the occasion by the ladies, with the loyal colors, red, white and blue, flags, garlands, etc. An appropriate programme of notices greeted the eyes on all sides, such as "England expects every man to do his duty," "Liberty," "Africa," etc. Over the platform were the words "God Save the Queen," above a large decorated wreath enclosing a handsome portrait of Her Majesty. Just over the outside entrance was the word "Liberty," in large illuminated letters, which attracted much attention.

Great enthusiasm was displayed throughout the entire meeting. Many and appropriate speeches were received with much applause. Such was the enthusiasm displayed, the loyalty of this and surrounding communities cannot be doubted.

The music readings and recitations were well rendered and filled a long and interesting programme.

Mr. Parks, who was rowing down the Washademok Lake, near the Narrows, noticed something floating on the water, and when he rowed to it, he found it to be the body of Mrs. Straight. The body was brought to the shore, and Coroner M. O. Macdonald, M.P.D., was notified, but he deemed an inquest unnecessary.

By all appearances the body had been floating only a short time. The remains were interred on Monday afternoon in the Macdonald Corner Cemetery. A memorial service will be held on Sunday morning at 10.30 o'clock in the Baptist church at Macdonald's Corner.

John and Bruce DeWare left by Star on Monday to go to Providence, R. I., where they will remain during the summer.

Mrs. HERRY'S CASE.

Story of a Common Mistake in Every Day Life.

Thought one Box of Dodd's Kidney Pills would Cure Her. A Trouble of Eight Year's Standing—in the End Twelve Boxes Were Needed.

HALLAM, N. S., April 23.—The story of Mrs. Herry's case, despatched recently from Beaf River, Digby County, is the story of a common mistake the world over. Many people seem to think that because they are not cured by Dodd's Kidney Pills on the first dose, they are incurable. They give up so easily. It is no use expecting great results from half-hearted effort. Persevere and Dodd's Kidney Pills will cure you.

It is a mistake to expect to get cured of an ailment like Chronic Kidney Disease in a hurry. Mrs. Herry, of Beaf River, had kidney trouble for over eight years before she started to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Then on a friend's advice she bought a box. After taking that first box she was not cured. She had had that disease for eight years. But she left off taking Dodd's Kidney Pills because the first box didn't cure her.

Three years after, having tried other medicines in vain, she was still not cured. She was in fact so much worse that she could not dress or undress unaided, and could not sleep more than five minutes at a time through the night. She determined to try Dodd's Kidney Pills again. Three years' experience had taught her that the most persevering to succeed, so this time she bought five boxes. When they were used she got even more. Today she is as well as ever she was in her life. The lesson is that Dodd's Kidney Pills would have cured her the first time if she had persevered.

The Festive Gold Bricks.

SEANONVILLE, Mass., April 18.—As the result of his confidence in the honesty of two strangers, Donald Leonard, a middle aged farmer of Feeding Hills, three miles out of this city, is poorer by $4,000, and richer by 75 pounds of gold metal, which he supposed represented two blocks of gold. It is the old, old game of the city man with the gold brick, and the farmer hastening to be relieved of his money in his anxiety to capture a rare bargain. The proceedings were made more interesting for Mr. Leonard by the addition of an Indian, with long black hair, eagle plumes and buckskin suit with fringed trappings. There was also a government assayer, with a set of formidable instruments and a certificate from the United States government, besides a diplomat from a mining school. When the assayer, who was presumably a stranger to the man with the bricks, showed the large red seal which he said he had received from Uncle Sam, the very small vestige of doubt which existed in the mind of the farmer vanished and he hastened to the various banks, in which he had his money deposited, and drew out $4,000 in large bills, which he gave to the stranger for the bricks. Mr. Leonard became suspicious today and told his story to the police of this city. There is no clue to the swindlers, who left town soon after relieving Mr. Leonard of his cash.

FOUL BREATH FROM CATARRH.

Tells of the Decay of the Mucous Lining of the Nose and Throat.

No symptom of catarrh causes more annoyance than foul breath. This offensive odor comes from the excretion of the membrane and is an indication of the decay which is taking place in the linings of the nose and throat. To the victim of catarrh as well as to his associates this foulness of the breath is disgusting.

To counteract bad breath and eradicate catarrh from the system no treatment is more successful than Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, the only remedy that can be relied upon to entirely cure chronic catarrh.

Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure is sent direct to the diseased parts by the improved blower which accompanies each box. It cleans the ulcers, clears the air passages, relieves the pressure which causes headache, stops the decay which causes foul breath, and absolutely cures catarrh and prevents consumption. It is a box, blower free, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.
