A tea meeting, which was a grand success in every way, was held on Christmas evening in Hackett's church a little west of here. James Hackett, Eq., was elected chairman of the meeting, which position he filled satisfactorily. Excellent music was furnished by the Dungannon chair. Addresses were given by Rev. J. LeGear of Dangannon, Rev. Mr. Sanderson, of Whitechurch, and Rev. C. Hamilton the paster of the church. We are sure every one went church. We are sure every one went away well satisfied with the war in which they had invested their incury. The proceeds, which were for church purposes, amounted to fifty dollars. After the usus, votes of thanks the meeting closed. The evening after a social was given to the Suaday school children, which was

Career of this recognized leading Agriculture

WHAT IT IS TO-DAY. Six months ago the American Agriculturist entered upon a new career of presperity, and to-day it is far superior to any similar periodical ever produced in this or any other country. Richer in editorial strength; richer in engravings; printed on finer paper, and presonting in every issue 100 columns of original reading matter from the ablest writers, and nearly 100 illustrations. Dr. George Thurbur, for nearly a quarter of a century the editor-in-chief of the American Agriculturist, Joseph Harris, Byron D. Halsted, Col. M. C. Weld, and Andrew S. Fuller, the other long-time Editors, together with the other writers who have made the American Agriculturist what it is to-day, are still at their pasts.
