A New Novel by a New Writer.

The Honey Pot by Countess Hareyska. It is a story of the stage, and never perhaps have the expectations and disappointments of the aspirant for a successful stage career been more naturally described. Two girls, Maggie and Lexie, hold the interest throughout. They are excellently contrasted. Maggie, the daughter of an actress, having been associated with the stage from her earliest childhood and influenced by its freedom, while Lexie has been brought up in refinement and wants a career for the use of her talent. It is not too much to say that Maggie, the lovable and loving girl who, with all her worldly character, falls a prey to the man who captures her fancy, is a triumph of characterization. Natural and human she is the heart of the book; but hardly less interesting is Lexie's stubborn fight with its happy ending and the many intimate pictures of the life of the chorus girl. The whole story rings true. Paper, 65c.; Cloth, 90c.
