Extra Attractions at the Crescent To-Night

ALSO THE USUAL BIG AMATEUR CONTEST CONSISTING OF NEW ACTS.

The usual big Friday night Amateur Contest takes place at the Crescent Theatre to-night. Apart from the Contest, however, there will be several added attractions that are sure winners. There is always something good at this popular theatre, but the bill for to-night will eclipse all previous occasions. Patrons are advised to attend early to secure a good seat.

The motion picture is Marshall Nollan's big screen success, "The Stranger's Banquet."

The picture is a colorful story of the shipwreck of a girl's valiant struggle to manipulate wisely the fortune left by her father and to carry on his lifetime's work of building ships. Probably no more famous aggregation of screen talent has ever been gathered together for a single picture than was engaged for this one. Many of the names in the cast, which numbers about forty, are of themselves sufficient to draw big audiences. Hobart Bosworth was persuaded by Neilan to stop work temporarily on his own pictures in order to assume the role of the old ship-building genius, Shane Butler Keogh. Claire Windsor, one of the most beautiful leading women of the screen, is seen as the daughter, Dortha Keogh. The always popular Rockfellow plays opposite Miss Windsor as Angus Campbell, son of Keogh's best friend.
