WALL PAPERS

The fact that Mr. O'Reilly, who has thus far so ably conducted the Whelan prosecution, is not retained by either the Dominion or Local Government of On-Goods are being sold at wonderfully Low Prices.
The subscriber has just returned to town with a large assortment of NEW BOOKS, purchased at Auction, and other chapp sources, which he will sell at low prices. Every person is respectfully equested to call and examine the stock. Trouble and attention never considered. Dominion or Local Government of On-tario to manage the case in appeal causes a good deal of surprise among all classes here. It is known that Mr. O'Reilly proceeded as far as Kingston on his road to Toronto, but stopped there — but whether from choice or necessity is un-explained.

Joshua Long and Mary Nichols, the men and the other man's wife, who recently eloyed from Allsa Craig, and were alterwards arrested at Chatham, were brought before the Police Magistrate in London, on Wednesday. Mr. Nichols was present, and generously offered Mrs. Nichols forgiveness of her trespasses, if she would promise to run away no more. She gave the pledge and was restored to love and the old spooney. Long was obliged to go to gool until he had accumulated sufficient funds to pay a fine of 55 and costs.

They had not been paid for some weeks before, and on this eventful light the treasurer and the only white performer in the Company bolted, taking all the funds along with them. The troupe got assistance to take them on to St. Catherines where they were advertised. They are said to be deserving of patronage.

A young man named J. McCue was shot at Colling wood on Wednesday evening by a man named Winch. It appears that several young men blackened their faces and proceeded to the house of Winch to rescue a girl, who was said to be kept there against her will. A row occurred and the shooting of McCue was the result. He died at 12 o'clock on Thursday. The parties implicated are now in the customers of the country.

Hon. Mr. Wood replied that the matter referred to would form a subject of the arbitration. As to the Municipal Loan Fund credits, no doubt payment in full would be made.

Mr. Clarke's motion in reference to Collegiate education was left over for discussion till next Wednesday.

The House again went into Committee on Attorney-Genesal Macdonald's Bill respecting elections of members of the Legislative Assembly.

After considerable discussion several clauses of the Bill were amended, when the Committee rose, reported progress, and asked leave to sit again.

On motion of Hon. Mr. Wood, the report from Committee of the Whole on the Bill to amend the Act relating to the collection, by means of stamps, of fees of office, dues and duties payable to the Crown upon law proceedings and registrations, was concurred in, and the Bill ordered to be read a third time to-morrow.—Carried On motion of Attorney-General Macdonald the House went into committee on the Bill to diminish the sittings of County Courts and Quarter Sessions, to abolish Recorders' Courts, and for other

REPORTED CONSPIRACY TO RESCUE
WHALEN. — The Telegraph is out this morning with a report that there is a conspiracy on foot for the rescue of Whalen. It assures us that it is making no egort to be sensational, that the plot has been concoted, and that, beyond doubt, there will be an attempt made to carry it out. It says: "Since his conviction there has been a gang of ruffians organized in Montreal for the special purpose of attempting his rescue. Since the prisoner has been brought to this city the portion of the gang here have been devising some means for his rescue. Whether they have settled on a plan is as yet uuknown; but that they intend making the attempt is beyond a doubt. friends and acquaintances, in every part of the country.
