TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS.

Y. M. C. A.—The regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in their rooms this Thursday evening. The report with regard to the proposed Town Missionary will be brought forward. There will also be a reading. As this will be a very important meeting it is hoped there will be a large attendance of members. dw

We understand that the case of the Township of Luther vs. the Toronto, Grey & Bruce Railway Company, for the annulling of the bonds granted to that Company on account of the non-fulfillment of the conditions on which the bonds of Luther Township was granted to the Company, is likely to come off tomorrow. Eminent counsel are engaged on both sides, and forensic ability is expected on the occasion. dw

WEST WARD ELECTION.—The Mayor has issued his writ to the Returning Officer for the West Ward to hold an election for a Councillor in room of Mr. John McNeill. The election comes off on Thursday next. We understand that Mr. George Elliott has consented to be a candidate. He is an old Councillor, and has proved himself a very efficient one, and if elected will do good service to the Ward and town. Mr. Hatch's name has also been mentioned in connection with the election, but we are not aware whether or not he has consented to be a candidate. dw

MR. EASTY'S READING.—Last night Mr. Easty gave the first of his two readings in the Town Hall. The audience though not numerous was larger than the reader had been led to expect. Guelph some how having an outside reputation for treating with indifference this style of intellectual entertainment. Mr. Easty came to us with an excellent character as an orator, and his efforts last evening fully redeemed the promise of his coming. This evening Mr. Easty will give selections from Irish and American ballads, and those who wish to enjoy a hearty laugh as well as to acquire some elementary knowledge and considerable mental pleasure will do well to be present. We sincerely hope that the attendance to-night will remove a stigma from the intellectualism of Guelph that we much fear has hitherto had but too good grounds for its existence. dw

PRESENTATION.—A number of the pupils in Miss Holmwood's school, who had been promoted at the late examination, took the opportunity before leaving of presenting her, on Tuesday afternoon, with a handsome inkstand and a number of other articles, accompanied by the following address:— GUELPH, Ont., March 27, 1872. Miss Holmwood, Dear Teacher.—We, your affectionate pupils, who are about to leave you, after considering the kindness which you have manifested towards us, and the deep interest which you, since your arrival amongst us, have taken in promoting our welfare and happiness, take great pleasure in presenting you with this inkstand, not for its intrinsic value, which we are aware is not much, but as a slight token of our regard for you as our most respected teacher. During the time we have been your pupils we feel that we have spent many happy hours together, and we trust you may be in the future as in the past, have been in the past. On behalf of the pupils, EMILY MADDOCK, BERTHA KEABLES, Miss Holmwood replied very feelingly, expressing her satisfaction with her pupils, her regret at parting from them and her thanks for the very handsome presents they had bestowed upon her. She trusted they would continue storing their minds with useful knowledge, and fit themselves for high positions in after life. A combination between the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and the Panama Railway has been effected as a rival to the Union Pacific Railway. dw

Harriston Correspondence.

HARRISTON FAIR.—The fair last week, notwithstanding that many of the best cattle have been disposed of during the last few weeks, was at least an average one. The day was fair, and snow having fallen all the Thursday previous, all needful out of door work was suspended, and there was a very large attendance of farmers. Prices were not much improved and a goodly number of the cattle were sold in a poor condition. Horse selling seemed lively and Mr. Scott from Galt, took away with him eight very superior animals. dw

Sales noted as follows:—George Bramhill, 1 cow, $30; George Reuben, 1 steer $16, and 1 cow, $33; John Henry, 1 yearling, $10; Robt. Jose, 3 head $54; Alex. Bruce, 1 cow $22; James Connell, 3 head $165; Wm. Gallagher, yoke-oxen $105; Wm. Roberts, yoke do, $108; J. Davidson, yoke do, $77; Daniel Scott, yoke do $80; John Thompson, 1 cow $27; Geo. Richardson, 1 cow $50; J. Wilton, 1 heifer $15; A. McMaster, 2 head $38; Mal McMaster, yoke-oxen, $118; D. McMaster, do $90; Louis Wilkins, 1 cow, $20; G. Hood, yoke oxen, $135; Wm. Wallace, 2 cows $15; Malcolm MacEachern, 1 cow, $50; W. Ewen, 1 do, $15; J. P. Pugh, 1 do, $21; Alex. McDougall, yoke oxen, $108; Mr. McCullough, cow, $30; Thos. Conron, 1 steer, $35; Wills Carter, 1 cow, $27; Jas. Connell, 1 horse, $135; Robt. Harding, 1 do, $150; Jno. Wilkinson, 1 do, $175; Mr. Dockstader, year old colt, $120; Alex. McDougall, 1 yearling, $110; Joseph Hall, 1 do, $115; W. Rutherford, 1 span do, $200. The complaint for want of feed for cattle is becoming loud and prevalent. dw

ACCIDENT.—The Rev. Mr. Doelstader came into the village on Saturday last, and having fastened his horse to a post in front of the post office, went to transact his business. In his absence the horse became frightened at a bus returning from the railway station and made some desperate plunges for liberty, throwing himself over and kicking a man in a furious manner, but in a few moments succeeded in making good his escape, leaving the bridle and one of the reins on the stump. He dashed down Elora street, and ran against a sleigh, which, however, was not injured, but breaking one of the shafts and fender of the cutter which he was attached to, and continuing his homeward course until caught by Mr. Archibald Wright. The practice of fastening horses to posts is here still very common though dangerous. In a place like this where horses have been accustomed to railway whistles and other noisy sounds, and are not used to a greater caution is needed, but unfortunately no serious accidents has as yet occurred. dw

THE WEATHER.—The 1st of April, and more snow than we had a week ago. Yesterday we had frosts and thaws alternately, but towards evening frost, snow and drift obtained the ascendancy, and to-day the Railway west, and sides lines are as badly drifted up as they have been at any time during the present winter. The mixed train from Clifton due here at 8:15 a.m., succeeded in getting down about 12:45 a.m., but only got as far as Lang's cut when the cars drawn by two engines ran off the track. The up accommodation train due here at 2:15 had to remain at Drayton, to await the arrival there of the down one, and up to the latest hour to night nothing has been heard of it. Tuesday morning mail got in about 1 o'clock a.m., and the weather is again moderate. dw

After filling up the blanks in said By-law, the Council proceeded to read the same, and the Reeve resumed the chair. Moved by Mr. Hughes, seconded by Mr. Bateman, that said By-law be read a third time, and passed and numbered 117.—Carried. Moved by Mr. Hughes, seconded by Mr. Heard, that Mr. G. Hughes be refunded the sum of $5 for labour performed on lot 9, con. 8, for the year 1870.—Carried. The Clerk was instructed to give to the township Treasurer his bonds for the year 1870 and 1871. Moved by Mr. Bateman, seconded by Mr. Hughes, that this Council do now adjourn. Moved by Mr. Heard, seconded by Mr. Hughes, that the Court of Revision be held on that day.—Carried. dw

Railway Meeting at Mimosa. Our correspondent writes that a meeting was held at this place on the 28th ult., in the interest of the Credit Valley Railway. About 150 were present, and Mr. John Gray was appointed chairman. Resolutions were made by Mr. D. McMillan, Greasey, and Mr. H. Milroy in favour of the Credit Valley scheme, and by Mr. E. Johnston against it. Several others also spoke for and against the scheme and after about three hours of discussion the following resolutions were moved:— Mr. J. Mann, seconded by Mr. J. R. Reid, that in the opinion of this meeting it is premature to take any action in railway matters at present. An amendment was moved by Mr. Kilgour in favour of the Credit Valley, which the chairman declared carried, though our correspondent says a great many present thought it was otherwise, and that a majority voted for the motion. dw

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

Disraeli at Manchester.

Funeral of Prof. Morse.

Republican Victory in Rhode Island.

London, April 3.—Disraeli, who is on a visit to Manchester, addressed a Conservative meeting in the Free Trade Hall in that city this evening. Disraeli began by saying, "We have assembled here to protest in our resolution to uphold the constitution of the Kingdom. We have come together to talk of a programme for future action, which will not despoil churches nor plunder landlords, but further the interests of the great body of the people." He then went on to make an earnest defence of monarchy. To the throne, he said, must be ascribed the blessings which Englishmen enjoy. The sovereign does exercise a real influence. Monarchy was an institution around which in peril and adversity the people can rally. The English monarchy cost less than that of any other nation. The expense of the sovereignty of the United States, which embraces Congress and State Legislatures as well as the Executive, was between 700,000 and 800,000 pounds sterling, double the total of the English civil list. He closed with a vindication of the aristocracy and defence of the House of Lords as an essential element of government. dw

New York, April 3.—The funeral of Professor Morse will take place at 11 a.m. on Friday, from the Madison Square Presbyterian Church, of which the deceased has been for many years a member. The remains will be interred in Greenwood Cemetery. dw

The first quarterly meeting of the Guelph Working Men's Club was held in their rooms on Wednesday night. There was a good attendance. Death of Prof. Morse.

This celebrated electrician died on Tuesday, after a short but painful illness. He was born in 1791. In his earlier years he was a successful painter, but in 1829 his attention was turned to electricity, and the use it might be put to in conveying messages. In 1835 he demonstrated the practicability of his invention by completing and putting in operation in the New York University a model of his "Recording Electric Telegraph," the greater part of the apparatus having been made by himself. In 1837 he filed his patent at the patent office in Washington. The Americans claim that Prof. Morse was thus the inventor of the electric telegraph, but they carry their claims a little too far. Prof. Morse did not discover the principle, but applied it by an invention peculiarly his own. For this the world must give him credit. At the same time, it is only fair to European claimants to the discovery and application of this important agent of verbal intercommunication to state that Mr. Wheatstone, the English inventor of a magnetic telegraph, took out, in conjunction with Mr. W. F. Cooke, a joint patent in England in May, 1837; while Steinheil, in Bavaria, invented a system of his own about the same time, and both different from Morse's, and from each other. Wheatstone's system is in use in England and other parts of the world; Morse's system is in use throughout America; while Steinheil's system, from its complicated and expensive machinery, has been proved impracticable for extensive practical operation. Four years later the first line on this continent was completed. It extended from Baltimore to Washington. It is less than thirty-five years since that first line was opened up by day telegraph. These are to be found in every hamlet in North America, the wire in use is many thousand miles in length, the receipts of the companies amount to millions each year, while the benefits the public reap from the system are beyond value. dw

The Niswari Tragedy.

The trial of Phoebe Campbell still continues. On Tuesday the evidence of Richard Blackmore, Wm. Craig, Mrs. Margaret Wiseman, Mary Craig, Charles Hutchison, Patrick Kelly, Thomas Gourlay, and Mr. Sutherland was taken. No startling disclosures were made, but the general tenor of the preceding evidence was corroborated. Thomas Gourlay, who went to Campbell's house after the murder, gave evidence that went strongly to show that one person had occupied the bed the night previously. It was elicited, however, on cross-examination, that his statement was not made until after the inquest; nor had he, at the time of making his observations, spoken to any other person on the subject. Mr. Sutherland, a shrewd old man, and who had early suspected the prisoner, described her apparently forced attempts to show grief and the absence of tears alluded to by other witnesses. He too had examined the bed, and swore that from its appearance, only one person could have slept in it. A model of the bed was produced, and as witness described how it was turned down on one side, the prisoner betrayed much emotion. The cross-examination did not shake his testimony, and he explained that his reason for not stating these facts at the inquest was, that he had known prisoner's family for years, and did not wish to have anything to do with the matter. The interest in the case appears to be increasing as the trial proceeds, the court being much crowded. The prisoner's firmness appears to be failing, but all through the proceedings on Wednesday she sat with her veil down, and her face buried in her handkerchief. dw

Presbyterian Synod of Toronto.

The Toronto Synod of the Canada Presbyterian Church began its regular half-yearly meeting in the Rev. Dr. Jennings' Church, on Wednesday evening. A sermon was preached by the retiring Moderator, the Rev. Mr. Rogers, of Peterboro', after which the Rev. Dr. Thornton, Oshawa, was unanimously elected Moderator, and took the chair. dw

Knox College.—This college was closed, on Wednesday. The attendance of students at this institution has been larger during the past session than in any of the previous ones since 1865. Nine Bursaries were awarded to different students and a special prize for excellence in reading New Testament in Greek. Mr. Campbell having lectured on Church History during the Session, was presented with a very kind and flattering address by Mr. Scriver in name of students, and he made a suitable and short reply. dw

DESERTING EMPLOYMENT.—At the Toronto Police Court John Auld was charged by the proprietor of the Telegraph with deserting employment. He had signed an agreement to work for a year. Mr. Barry, who appeared for the prisoner, asked permission for him to return to work, but the magistrate said that the prisoner had committed a flagrant breach of the law, for which he had the option of fining him $20 or of sending him to jail for 30 days. He sentenced the prisoner to 20 days imprisonment in the common goal. dw

EMIGRATION TO THE SASKATCHEWAN.—Emigration to this part of the North West seems to be receiving attention in Canada and not too soon either, as the French half-breeds here are making a move in an same direction. Many in the Province will move out there shortly, and a number of those who formerly were plain-traders and buffalo-hunters in that district, have resolved on selecting a location for a permanent settlement, and under the direction of their priest, are to take a large block of land suitable for that purpose between Carleton and Edmonton; so that the same effort will be made there as in Manitoba to secure the best parts of the country for the most population. dw

At Glasgow, Scotland, one loom factory uses up 6,000 tons of sea-weed every year. dw
