ABOUT HAIR

Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Sir,—I have, as you know, for some time advertised in Canada and the States a prescription for the hair called "Dr. Dorenwend's Hair Magic." I have received some thousands of fiatiering testimonials from those who have used it as to its merits as a resiorative of gray or faded hair; also as a promoter of the growth and a certain cure for dandruff.

A great many of my correspondents ask the questions: "Why is my hair falling out?" As it is impossible for me to answer every one, I take the liberty of encroaching on your valuable space to make a general reply. A great many persons do not seem to be aware that excessive washing and rubbing is injurious to the growth of the hair; such is the case, however. Constant washing and rubbing the scalp and hair causes over irritation and removes the oily substance which gives strength to the hair; undue heat caused by the wearing of heavy headgear is also injurious. Anything that will cause dand. Editor of the ADVERTISER: sized by the wearing of heavy headgear is o injurious. Anything that will tend to dry the sap or life of the hair will cause dand, f, falling out of the hair, gray or faded hair il maily baldness. Of course there are other uses as diseases, hereditary tendencies, etc., the first mentioned are the main and most

Four Children in One Grave.

READING, Pa., April 21.—An unrual funeral was witnessed at Bern Church, near Leesport, Berks county, Saturday, when the remains of four children of Adam Stout, a well known citizen of Marsh, Chester county, were interred in one grave in the cemetery adjoining the church. The little ones ranged in age from 2 to 7 years and died within 48 hours of the measles and grip. Owing to the contagious character of the disease the railroads preferred not to furnish transportation to the funeral cortege, and the family and mourners drove a distance of 28 miles. Diphtheria, grip and measles have carried off 200 chill ren within a radius of twenty miles of Reading within a short time.

a radius of twenty miles of Reading within a short time.

Novel Elopement.

London, April 21.—An elopement with some novel and exciting features has just occurred at Alfreton. Pretty Annie Gough, daughter of the coachman of Judge Morewood at that place, dressed herself is her brother's clothes, stole the judge's horse, rode to the neighboring city of Nottingham and there joined her lover. The couple would doubtless have succeeded in completing the plan thus far so well carried out had not the cupidity of the prospective bridgeroom proved stronger than either his honesty or his discretion. He attempted to sell the horse, and the delay thus incurred enabled the emissaries of the angry father to overtake the fugitives. The girl was arrested and taken back home, but her lover managed to escape.
