"MY HARDEST AND BEST FIGHT WAS WITH BIG HANK GRIFFEN"

BY JACK JOHNSON.

Heavyweight Champion of the World. One of the hardest battles and one which I consider of the best in my career in the prize ring, I fought against Hank Griffen, a colored man, at Oakland, Cal., in 1902. We went 15 rounds, the decision going to me. Griffen was a man about six feet four inches in height, and at that time he had the longest reach of any man in the boxing game. If he were
