MARSHALL.

[St. Catharines Journal.]
David Marshall, the well-known canner of Aylmer, Ont., and a Conservative politician, thinks it is good business for the Aylmer Condensed Milk Company of which he is head, to ship cream to Cleveland. At the same time Mr. Marshall and his associates argue that it would be disloyal and would tend to annexation if the Canadian farmer were to ship his produce to the United States markets without paying a duty.
