Both Houses Adjourn Out of Respect to His Memory.

Premier Borden Reviews Lord Strathcona's Life.

[Special to The Advertiger.] Ottawa, Jan. 21.—The four leaders of the two houses today paid tribute high commissioner for Canada in Lonto the worth and works of Lord Starthcona and to show fitting respect to the close of a wonderful life, the Senate and the House of Commons adjourned without the transaction of business. In the Commons, Premier Borden and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in the Senate, Hon Mr. Lougheed and Sir George Ross eloquently voiced the virtues of the great High Commissioner. the Commons, Premier Borden asked the members to join in paying a tribute to the memory of Lord Strathcona, a great Canadian who though born in the motherland, consecrated his life to the service of the Dominion. After reviewing the wonderful life of Lord Strathcona in Canada, to which he came a poor Scottish boy of eighteen and where he won from the wilderness fortune and fame, affluence, power and dignity. Premier Borden said:

Inspired By Sense of Duty. "I have known many men in my life time who were imbued with a high man more profoundly inspired by a sense of duty than was Lord Strathcona. Time did not dim the freshness of his spirit, the vigor of his will or the strength of his purpose. No man more than he had a high pride in this country or was more deeply concerned in the honor, dignity and interests of Canada. The example of his life may well be an inspiration to all Canadians and to all men in the Left a Trail of Sorrow. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was even more eloquent. "Since Sir John Macdonald don was an asset of inestimable value to he said, "I do not know that there has been any Canadian who on departing this life left behind him such a trail of sorrow as Lord Strathcona. He is mourned by his majesty the King. whose personal friend he was, by peers of the realm in whose illustrious house he had an honored place, by the authorities of commerce and finance in the commercial metropolis of the world, who found him an equal, by the poor of London to whom on repeated occasions he was the incarnation of beneviation. Ross said that one of Canada's greatest men had fallen by the wayside.

Created a Profound Impression. "This universal sense of sorrow i tribute bestowed only upon men of strong personality, and to this class of this regret so universal and so deep may be found in the fact that whereever he passed, whether amongst the Indians of the forest and prairie or the most eminent political and commercial men in Canada, or the highest peers in London, he created a deep, lasting and profound impression.

Never Spoiled by Success. "He came to Canada when only eighteen, more than 75 years ago with the sound, practical education of a Scotch lad, and more than a full share of the characteristics of his race, keen business courage, caution and firmness, never loud and assertive, never failing to stand strong as adamant against all reverses, and never spoiled by even the most phenomenal success. He came as a junio clerk to the Hudson Bay Company and rising step by step became governor of that historic company on the death of Sir George Simpson in 1860. "It may be fitting to remark, that since the amalagamation of the Hudson Bay Company with the Northwest Company in 1821, almost one hundred years ago, that powerful institution has been ruled by only two men, Sir George Simpson and Lord Strathcona. Saw Future of Rupert's Land. "When Rupert's Land was acquired Donald Smith, as he was then, had a paramount influence over those distant territories, and without that influence, the transfer which was not without bloodshed would have been even more tragic. His services in this connection never properly were appreciated. To that time and some ime afterwards, the policy of the Hudson Bay Company was to keep these distant lands purely as a hunting ground, but the keen business instinct of Lord Strathcona told him that no force could resist the advancing tide of civilization, and with characteristic promptness he took steps to change that policy."

Proud They Were Colleagues. Sir Wilfrid showed how first, with J. J. Hill, he had established a rail and water communication through the Western States to Canada, and

It All Depends on the Liver

So important is the liver and so great is its influence on the other vital organs of the body that it may he said you have little to fear from the ordinary ills of life so long as the liver is in a healthful working order. The digestive processes are so dependent on free action of the liver that any derangement of this organ soon brings trouble.

Biliousness and constipation follow, with headache and depressed spirits. Additional work is thrown on the kidneys, and soon the whole eliminating system is deranged and the blood carries poisons through the body. Careful eating is a great help towards keeping the liver right, but when it does get wrong there is nothing like Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to restore the liver to healthful action. With the secretion of bile by the liver, constipation and biliousness are cured, and the digestive and excretory systems are set in order. It is won-derful the benefit obtained by a few doses of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills under these circumstances. A trial will convince you of their

Sir Wilirid added, "It was his privilege to attain a very great age, and, perhaps, it was still a greater privilege to him to realize that as he advanced in years he grew more in the respect, admiration and affection of his countrymen." Message From Colonial Secretary. Mr. Borden read to the House cable message received by His Royal Highness the Governor-General, from ADDRESSES BY LEADERS Rt. Hon. Lewis Harcourt, secretary of state for the colonies, which read as "I desire on the part of His Majesty's Government to convey through Your Royal Highness to the Government and the people of Canada, an expression of deep sympathy in the loss which the Dominion has sustained by the death of Lord Strathcona don for the past seven years, a sym pathy shared by his many friends in the United Kingdom and throughout the empire. His name has been for many years a household word among us, embodying to all the thought of Canada and her marvellous progress. as well as of his own notable career. distinguished by large public fusefulness and magnificence of liberality, and his memory is assured of an honored and abiding place in the annals of the Dominion to which he devoted his faithful service to the end."

Claude Graham White Proposes to Make Non-Stop Flight In 1915.

[Canadian Press.] New York, Jan. 22.- A cable to the Tribune from London says: Graham White said yesterday that plans had been laid for a trans-Atlantic flight in the summer of 1915. A special aeroplane is being built, but there is no possibility of a flight this year, as it would take a year to get ready.

"The only thing that has prevented is lack of financial support, but I have now begun to receive help from Americans. I estimate forty to sixty hours make the trip without stopping or descending for petrol. The 'plane will carry six persons. The starting point has not yet been decided upon, but the landing will of course be at New York.

statute book, and men are still being trained under its authority.

Mr. L'Esperance, the chief lieutenant of Sir Rodolphe Forget, has given notice of a motion for the repeal of the act. Premier Borden might be willing to do this, if he had anything to take its place, but he had anything to take its place, but he had no permanent policy prepared, and if he had, could hardly enact it, for he has promised time and again that the permanent policy is to be submitted to the electors.

He is not ready to go to the country this year, and will therefore have to call upon his followers to vote down Mr. It is intimated that Sir Rodolphe Forget

Mrs. J. D. Talbut, Owen Sound, Ont., writes:-"I have been a great sufferer from heart disease, and leaking valves. I have had resource to every kind of treatment I could think might help me, including the skill of several doctors. I suffered so for years that at times I have felt that nothing but death could end my misery. I was advised by a friend, who had suffered untold pain and misery, just as I had, and had been cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, to give them a trial, so I decided to do so. I am delighted with the result, as I am now completely cured, and can eat and sleep as I have not done for Social Survey Will Reveal Some of London's Worst Conditions.

FINAL ARRANGEMENTS

Conference In Queen City Lost More Before Full Details Are Published.

Harold W. Lyons, secretary of the Men's Federation of London, left last night on the 6:53 Grand Trunk Flyer for Toronto, where he will meet Drs. Myers and Riddell, social survey experts, who recently completed a surey of this city. Although the work has been under way for four months, and has finally been completed, no definite reports whom he never completely severed his career of any Canadian with whom most connection, and in Canada by all classes of the community, rich and classes of the community, rich and classes of the community, rich and classes of the community is the community of the first to my mind is the community is the community. gation until a welfare exhibit, which will be held in this city at some near future date. the conference in the Queen City, after which citizens will be apprised of the existing conditions in the city.

Educational Report Ready. Previous to leaving the city night, Secretary Lyons stated to The Advertiser that the educational and religious reports as presented to the federation by Dr. Myers were ready for publication, but were to be withheld, pending the outcome of the conference in Toronto. The industrial, economic, and general social investigations are at present in the possession of Dr. Riddell, but will be brought to London on the secretary's return, Saturday.

That the findings of the federation hrough its investigators will prove of more than ordinary interest is assured by the thoroughness with which the work has been assumed and completed. While it is not the object of the federation to censure, it is their intention to expose conditions as they have been found. Matters will not be minced.

Housing Disclosures. interesting disclosures are promised in connection with the housing question in London. Although the members are reticent to discuss the survey, it is alleged that there are instances where families are living in one room, and where accommodations are of the poorest. In one instance a the attempt to make a flight before now Chinese laundry was found on Richmond street, where because of improper drainage, waste water had been allowed to accumulate in the cellar to for the actual crossing. My plan is to the annoyance of the neighbors and endangering the health of the inmates.

WAS SUBJECT TO SEVERE BRONCHITIS. Doctors Only Gave Temporary Relief.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup CURED HIM.

Bronchitis is generally the result of a cold caused by exposure to wet and inclement weather, and is a very dangerous inflammatory affection of the bronchial tubes. Neglected bronchitis is one of the most general causes of consumption, so cure it at once by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Mrs. C. G. Dring, Hamilton, Ont., writes:-"Our little boy has been subject to severe bronchitis ever since birth, and different doctors claimed to be only able to relieve him temporarily. A neighbor advised us to use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got a bottle, and after the third dose noticed a decided change, so kept on with it, and a couple of bottles were enough to completely cure him. Now we always keep a bottle on hand, and give it to him as soon as we notice him troubled with a cold, after which it disappears as if by magic. We recom-mend it to all our friends who find it is just as good as I say."

Price, 25 and 50 cents a bottle. L'Esperance's motion.

It is intimated that Sir Rodolphe Forget is pushing a declaration on the naval question for the purpose of showing his importance, and incidentally to give trouble to Hon. L. P. Pelletier.

Frice, 25 and 30 cents a bettle.

Be sure and get the genuine "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, and manufactured by The trouble to Hon. L. P. Pelletier.

New York, Jan. 22.—Changes in rules governing the tests contracted by the Aero Club of America for aviator pilot licenses as announced yesterday by the executive committee of the club, were adopted at the annual meeting of the Federation Aeronautique Internationale, to go into effect this month. One of the new requirements makes it necessary for an applicant to attain an altitude of at least 100 metres (328 feet) in one of the test flights instead of 50 netres as heretofore. "In my opinion, there is every reason te believe that a number of amendments will be made to the proposed workmen's compensation act," said J. K. H. Unique Freight of Twelve Tons Passes Through City, Boston Bound.

A special train went through Nev laven the other night that created considerable interest at the station. It was bound from New York for Boston, and outside of the fact that It was outward appearance. It was an unique cargo, however, that this special carried, nothing less than 12 tons of little Fleischmann yeast cakes shipped specially from New York that Boston and its suburbs might be sure of its daily supply of yeast cakes today. Wilbur Chase, traffic manager of the Fleischmann Company, was with the train. The idea of the entire matter simply was that the regular shipment of yeast was delayed in some way so that it could not be secured in Boston, and in order to insure its customers of the regular supply the traffic department of the company went right to work and hired this special train so as to get the freight through on time, sparing no expense to keep its service uninterrupted despite the plots of weather conditions.

Greater than Panama's Bridge of Water

The Panama Canal is the logical outcome of the trend of modern commerce—it is monumental evidence of the present-day need for shortening distance—for lessening time and for reducing cost of distribution between maker and consumer.

In point of distance, the Panama will bring the Pacific nearer to the Atlantic by 1,000 miles. In point of time, the sea voyage between Halifax and Vancouver will be shortened by 24 days. In point of cost, the canal will very materially lessen the expense of carrying freight between these places. But there is a stronger factor than even the Panama in shortening distances, lessening cost and saving time between manufacturer and user.

It is Advertising—

It is the quickest-It is the most direct-And it is the cheapest-means of communication between the maker and user of goods.

For instance, Advertising enabled a manufacturer in Nova Scotia to carry a demand for his product from his factory to the Pacific Coast

- in a few days

- at an insignificant cost compared with slower and more laborious selling methods.

In one week, thousands learned of his product where it would have taken years for the news to get around without advertising.

To the Manufacturers of Canada:

You will be alert to take advantage of the Panama route for the physical transportation of your goods. Have you considered how quickly, how far, and at what small cost the Advertising Trade Route will carry demand for those goods?

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumeden Building, Toronto.
