2 Deaths Mar Peace Parleys In U.S. Rail Strike

MANY HURT IN DISORDERS OF PAST 24 HOURS

Ottawa Orders 9,000 Tons of Welsh Coal To Alleviate Fuel Crisis.

MINERS BATTLE GUARDS

Hostilities Feature Taking Over of Mines by State of Indiana.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—Developments in the railroad strike situation were today confined to speculation as to what the next peace move would be, and reports of violence at various points during the last 24 hours.

Union officials here are awaiting word from President Harding with regard to their message accepting his proposals for ending the walkout. Railroad executives and strike leaders still maintained their attitudes on the question of seniority, the railroads insisting that the rights of men who stayed at work and new men be respected, and union chiefs holding out for restoration of rights to strikers.

Two deaths resulted from violence, one in Edgemont, South Dakota, where a switchman of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy was shot, and the other in Chicago, where a carman employed in the Illinois Central shops was beaten to death.

A spokesman in the Illinois Central shops in Chicago was beaten into insubordination because he refused to join the strikers.

Shot Through Groin.

At Waco, Texas, a guard in the Missouri, Kansas and Texas shops was shot through the groin during an argument with a fireman.

A Union Pacific trainmaster was seized on the main street of Las Vegas, New Mexico, taken several miles into the desert and given a coat of tar and excelsior.

At the same time, four women attacked the wife of a Union Pacific roundhouse foreman as she was carrying dinner to her husband. She was beaten severely.

Two men were injured and half a dozen windows in a passenger coach were broken when a crowd of men stoned the Illinois Central train at New Orleans, La.

At Birmingham, Ala., two white men and two negro women were wounded in a clash between non-union workers and striking shopmen of the St. Louis-San Francisco Railroad.

Police reports said that while the men and one of the negro women were shot. One of the men was seriously wounded.

ORDERS WELSH COAL

Ottawa, Aug. 4.—An order for 9,000 tons of Welsh coal, to relieve the immediate demands in the city, were placed yesterday afternoon by the special committee of local coal merchants handling the fuel situation.

Of this order, 4,000 tons already have been shipped and the remaining 5,000 tons will be shipped immediately. Negotiations are being made for larger quantities of coal, but it was necessary to take steps to relieve the immediate shortage. Although the price of the coal has not yet been determined, it is expected that the retail price will be under $20 a ton.

WAR ON GUARDSMEN

Saunton, Ind., Aug. 4.—First hostilities in connection with the taking over of mines by the state occurred today when National Guardsmen on duty were fired upon from ambush. The fire was returned by the Guards, and later the firing was taken up over the entire area. Automatic rifles were brought into action by the troops, and the firing continued for more than an hour.

300 IRREGULARS FLEE IRISH CITY

Abandon Intentions of Combatting Free State Army On Banks of Suir.

Ulster Bank Wrecked by Mine Set From Armored Car.

Dublin, Aug. 4.—Irish irregulars have apparently abandoned whatever intentions they had of making a stand on the banks of the River Suir. National troops entered Carrick-on-Suir yesterday, the 300 irregulars who had occupied the town fleeing across the hills toward Dungarvan. Before the evacuation they destroyed all the Suir bridges.

The soldiers and government troops had previously taken Cahir, west of Clonmel, they now dominate the way east through the Suir Valley toward Waterford, and Clonmel, which is menaced from two sides, cannot hold out long. The Nationalists have already captured Bultinstown Castle, near Waterford.

Mullinahone, County Tipperary; Windgap, in Kilkenny, and other small towns, also have been taken by the government forces. Fenit, where a force of Nationalists yesterday made a surprise landing on the bank, is situated on Tralee Basin in County Kerry, and has a station on the Waterford and Limerick Railroad.

The Free State's coup in suddenly placing this force in the rear of the scattered irregulars is expected to have a significant bearing on the final outcome of the campaign. Fenit is about 65 miles northwest of Cork, the most important city held by the irregulars.

A band of irregulars early today entered Sligo in an armored car, and exploded a mine at the Ulster Bank, almost completely wrecking the building. No lives were lost. The armored car, engaged by a machine-gun post of National troops, finally retired.

GERMANS HASTE TO STOP FRANCE SEIZING MONEY

Bankers Transfer Deposits in U. S. to Holland and Switzerland.

ANTICIPATE PENALTIES

Paris, Aug. 4.—German banks within the last 48 hours have transferred to Holland and Switzerland between 60,000,000 and 70,000,000 French francs, which had been on deposit in United States and other foreign banks in Paris, the Associated Press learned this afternoon.

The money was hurriedly withdrawn, it is understood, in anticipation of its being seized by the French government as part of the penalties to be imposed upon Germany for her refusal to pay the £2,000,000 installment due on debts contracted before the war with France.

Premier Poincare will carefully keep secret his proposed solution of the reparations problem until he outlines it at the opening session of the London conference next week. It was asserted in official circles here that the French policy had been decided today.

Premier Lloyd George's decision to make public his plan before the meeting, it was said.

The French premier will leave for London at noon Sunday, accompanied by Finance Minister Lasteyre, Count Peretti de Rocca, director of political affairs in the foreign office, Secretary Massigli of the ambassadors' conference, and M. Camerlynck, interpreter of the supreme council. The finance minister will be accompanied by M. Tannery and Margerie, financial experts.

The money withdrawn was being held in Paris by the German banks for the account of German business houses and also for the German government. In the latter policy having been to establish credits in foreign currency in Paris, Brussels and London to meet reparation payments.

Reports have also reached Paris banking circles that the Germans had also withdrawn large sums from the banks in the latter districts of Germany and from Alsace-Lorraine, but these have not been confirmed.

The German reply to the Poincare ultimatum has not arrived in Paris, but official circles believe it will merely be another refusal and will delay the imposition of the penalties.

FIND MISSING BOY IN RAILWAY CITY

Children's Aid Officials Will Return Clifford Almas to London.

Successfully avoiding the authorities who were searching for him for six days, Clifford Almas, 10-year-old ward of the Children's Aid Society, who ran away from the Thomas Alway Hall Home here last Saturday afternoon, was finally captured by officials of the Children's Aid Society of St. Thomas in that city on Thursday afternoon.

Owing to the fact that the young wanderer formerly resided in St. Thomas, it was thought that he had journeyed to the Railway City after his disappearance from here, and the authorities of that place were notified to watch for him.

No details are available at the local office of the Children's Aid Society as to how Clifford Almas traveled to St. Thomas, or where he put in the six days of his absence.

Inspector W. E. Kelly of the society reports that the lad possesses unusual intelligence for his age. Mr. Kelly left London for St. Thomas on Friday morning, and will bring the boy back to the shelter.

British Labor Gives Benediction To War Debt Cancellation Note

LONDON, Aug. 4.—The Labor party has given its official benediction to the Earl of Balfour's war debt note. This was done last night through Arthur Henderson, secretary of the party, who, in a speech at Heywood, said:

"The only satisfactory method of relieving Europe from an intolerable burden and removing and sterilizing the uncertainty due to financial embarrassment is to arrange an all-round cancellation of mutual indebtedness. We welcome, therefore, the note issued by Lord Balfour. It is a great step forward in the right direction, and indicates, I believe, a sincere effort by the government, to solve the difficulties in which Europe finds herself.

"It means sanity at last is resuming its proper place in the common affairs of international life. It is a recognition of the stern fact that a general settlement of the problem of mutual indebtedness would be of more value to mankind than any gains accruing even from the most successful enforcement of legal obligations."

William Tite Would Imprison Sunday Workers

THINKS FINES TOO LIGHT.

ANY person who works on Sunday should be subject to a stiff fine and imprisonment as well.

This is the substance of a resolution calling for a strict enforcement of the Lord's Day act, which will be submitted by the London delegates to the Dominion Trades Congress at Montreal two weeks hence.

The labor men admit that there is such a thing as the Lord's Day act, but maintain that the same excites but little attention. "Now and again an employer is brought into police court and subjected to a small fine, and that is the end of it," explains William Tite, who with John McGuire, president of the Trades and Labor Council, will attend the Montreal session.

"If there was a law compelling a fine and imprisonment as well," Delegate Tite continued, "for the one who would accept employment, it would certainly tend toward a stricter adherence to the law."

REPORTS TRAFFIC THROUGH SMO GREATLY INCREASED

Records Also Show Falling Off In Coal Shipments Through Welland Canal.

Ottawa, Aug. 4.—(By Canadian Press).—Traffic for June through the Canadian and American locks at Sault Ste. Marie increased 140 per cent over May, due mainly to iron ore shipments increasing from 1,379,850 tons to 6,617,660 tons, while grain shipments dropped off about 50 per cent. Bituminous coal shipments continued light, and anthracite coal stopped altogether. Compared with June, 1921, grain and ore shipments were considerably heavier, but these gains were offset by reduction in coal, making little change in the aggregate.

Welland Canal traffic showed a decrease from June, 1921, of 11 per cent, due to decreases in coal and corn shipments. Rye and oil also decreased, while wheat and oats showed increases. From opening of navigation to June 30 wheat shipments amounted to 11,980,000 bushels, as against 8,820,000 bushels for the same period in 1921, and bituminous coal amounted to 94,324 tons, as against 252,610 tons last year.

Book Warm Cell Early In County Jail

INDICATIONS are that there will be a number of colder places this winter than the Middlesex County jail.

By reason of the foresight exhibited earlier in the year by John Stuart, county clerk, coal was poured into the jail bins, sufficient, it is believed, to last throughout the cold spell.

A continued coal strike holds little fear for the jail officials, and all guests will have no cause to complain, it is promised.

JUSTICE ASLEEP AS POLICE ERR?

Offence Listed Against P. C. Monahan Struck Off Court Records.

Official Declares Possibility of Constable Alleging Municipal Business.

Are members of the city police department exempt from all liability for alleged breaches of the motor-vehicle laws? is a question being asked by many citizens today.

Early this week county authorities announced that the name of Police Constable G. Monahan had been noted by them as the owner of a machine parked on the highway near Springbank Park with the lights out, contrary to regulations, intimating incidentally that the officer had settled the bill out of court.

Denied Being Fined.

The following day, however, P. C. Monahan issued a public statement, denying that he had been fined, that he had been the owner of a car, or was in any manner whatever implicated in the affair.

Questioned Friday morning, a member of the county police squad, Constable William Field, assured The Advertiser that while P. C. Monahan's name had been noted, the same had since been struck from the list.

"Because the chances were 'the constable replied, 'that if he was brought into this court he would be able to prove that he was on official police business."

Constable Field evinced the further opinion, nevertheless, that in the event that the machine in question was actually the policeman's, and had an accident occurred by some person crashing into it as it stood without lights on the highway, the officer or the municipality of London would have been responsible for damages or possible loss of life.

"Is it the custom for the authorities to turn to Page 3, Column 3."

FAIL TO NAME DATE FOR VOTE ON U.S. TARIFF BILL

Democratic Senators Object to Limitation of Debate Until Certain Sections Disposed Of.

Washington, Aug. 4.—The attempt to fix, by unanimous consent, a date for a final vote on the administration tariff bill, appeared to have been indefinitely abandoned today, but private negotiations were under way looking to at least some curtailment of discussion. Some Republicans believed these might lead to results, but certain Democratic senators were understood to object to limitation of debate until after the sections of the bill dealing with duties on sugar and hides had been disposed of.

Senator Lenroot, Republican, Wisconsin, in upsetting plans of Republican and Democratic leaders yesterday for a final vote on the bill on Aug. 15, explained that he could not consent to any arrangement under which important amendments might be acted upon without discussion.

Several poles rolling off the car caught Huncherick and crushed him. He was removed at once to Victoria Hospital, where his condition is reported to be improving.

The victim was attended by Dr. F. R. Clez.

FEARS HARDSHIP OF FUEL CRISIS PERILS PUBLIC

Coal Dealers Doubt U. S. Deliveries Possible Before December.

COUNCIL TO ACT TUESDAY

Retail Price of Emergency Anthracite To Be $20 to $25 a Ton.

Taking definite action to avert a coal crisis in London this winter, coal dealers of this city, representatives of the chamber of commerce and the city council decided, after a round table conference Friday morning, to recommend that the city of London immediately order 10,000 tons of Welsh anthracite coal, to be delivered here in September.

This coal is quoted at 64 shillings per ton delivered to Montreal, and estimates indicate the retail price to Londoners will be $20 to $25 per ton.

In the event of the coal strike in the United States being settled in time to provide coal cheaper than the European price before it is delivered, the city will stand the loss, and utilize the imported product in civic institutions.

The coal dealers present declined to predict any coal deliveries from the United States before December, and in view of that fact, the conference decided that, rather than hardships in London because of a coal shortage this winter, the civic authorities should place an order for 10,000 tons, which will tide the 14,000 city homes over a few weeks, pending delivery from across the border.

Appoint Committee.

After thoroughly discussing the problem, the conference selected a committee of three, representing the city, coal dealers and chamber of commerce, to find a solution.

This committee, composed of Ald. H. J. Childs, President E. S. Little, of the chamber of commerce, and John M. Daly, decided that the best course to pursue would be to order 10,000 tons of overseas coal at once.

This recommendation will be laid before the city council next Tuesday night, along with figures to be prepared by City Clerk S. Baker, representing the actual minimum price that such coal can be delivered to London homes. Other details to be worked out will include the method of distributing this anthracite following delivery here.

In his opening remarks to the conference, Mayor Cameron Wilson, who presided, pointed out the crisis which must be faced by the members because the miners' strike in the United States threatens to create a shortage of coal here this winter. He declared that, in his opinion, the problem of supplying coal to Canadians "is more or less a national affair, but it has left it apparently to the municipalities, and it is up to us."

Must Protect Public.

Continuing, his worship said: "The city has no desire to go into the coal business, but we feel that the public must have an adequate supply of coal and protect its price."

"The directors of the Chamber of Commerce will be glad to help," said E. S. Little.

"The question is too much for me," said John M. Daly, coal dealer, when the conference asked his opinion of the outcome of the coal situation with regard to a supply for London. "My opinion on this thing is not worth two cents. I am very loath to offer any suggestion either way. We are quite satisfied that every man in the city will do his best."

EIGHT YEARS AGO TODAY WORLD FACED WAR'S FURY

EIGHT years ago today war was declared. The smoldering embers of a European unrest, the result of age-old strife and resentment burst into a conflagration which was to scorch and ear the face of all the earth, and to send hissing tongues of death and destruction even onto the high seas.

Men stood amazed and bewildered that war could come upon a world which boasted of its magnificent civilization, and its doctrines of peace and friendship.

Four years of hideous reality were to follow, four years in which men realized that they were fighting, not for principle or dominion, but against the vice in which they were clutched, the machinery of war with all its diabolical contrivances, struggling that their fight might mean the end of all wars and a lasting peace.

Canada sent her sons. Men, to whom cleanliness was a ritual, who breathed the sweetness and health of Canadian homes, fought in the mud and filth of the trenches, and fighting for the culmination of all war, endured things intolerable. Canada knew suffering, but not the anguish of soul and body that those men went through, with a strength born, not of physical resources, but of a faith that their fight would be the last, and that modern genius and invention was meant for peace and not for war.

And now, for those men who died, and those who gave the best things of their lives, the world's statesmen are wrestling with the foundations of peace, bending every energy against a possible renewal of that conflagration. There are men who predict that war is not a thing of the past, that the world will still know a war in which science will accomplish horrors which tax the capacity of imagination, and yet ranking against all these are the great men of the world, whose talk of universal peace is not based on the dreams of idealists, but on the practical view of men who realize that the same right-minded citizens of the world are tired of continual strife with their neighbors, of the crafty, deep-laid schemes of political diplomacy and anxious to see the nations of the earth re-adjusted on a basis of simple, unaffected friendship.

There is unrest, there is strife and bickering, there may even be more war, but the world is confident that the great sacrifice of her sons will bear full fruit in due season.
