London, Aug. 30 .- The approaching expiration of the time limit for the completion of the Atlantic shipping combine is arousing the British press to all sorts of speculation regarding J. Pierpont Morgan's ultimate plans, as well as the government's scheme for dealing with the combination. The promised statement of the Premier, A. J. Balfour, on the re-assembling of Parliament, is awaited with intense interest. The statement has already been printed that the government's plans are complete, and that the authorities are all ready to make an effective counter move against the American syndicate. Inquiries made by the Associated Press in the best-informed quarters indicate that this announcement is not true. The government cide on a plan of action.
