The battle of Yang Tsun was fought on the 6th, and the advance on Ho Si Wu was accomplished on the 9th-a march of 18 miles in three days. 9th—a march of 18 miles in three days. This was four days ago, and at the same rate of progress the alies are even now fairly within striking dis-tance of the walls of Pekin. It was a consummation which the war depart-ment had awaited calmly, and stirring as the news was that the force was now paring the gates of the city. Scorretery as the news was that the force was how nearing the gates of the city, Sceretary Root and Adjutant-General Corbin evinced no surprise, as it accorded with calculations, although the advance had been more rapid than was expected. The despatch of Gen. Chaffee convey-ing so much in so few words is as fol-lows:

"Chee Foo, Aug. 10.—Adjutant-General. Washington, D. C.: Arrived Ho Si Wu yesterday." Word of the advance soon spread throughout official quarters. In the enthusiasm of the moment a report got abroad that this was the day for the actual arrival at Pekin, but the war de-partment had not a word of the advance beyond Ho Si Wu.
