Lentens slides on several Health topics were shown to the school children. These views were used to illustrate very instructive lectures on these topics. Dr. Murray lectured to the English speaking mothers while Dr. Pinault and Dr. Cyr, the Medical School Inspector, addressed the French speaking mothers. Arrangements have been made to have the system of free milk in local schools re-established. A contribution of $25.00 from the Rebekah Lodge for the care of the late Mrs. Hamilton is also reported.

RUSSELL SCOTT IS DENIED NEW TRIAL

Chicago, Feb. 18.—Russell Scott, former Toronto promoter who turned holding man, was denied a new trial Saturday by Circuit Judge T. J. Lynch, who held he must hang in accordance with the verdict of a jury which found he killed Joe Maurer, a drug clerk in a robbery last year.
The prisoner was sentenced to hang on April 17 after he had made a dramatic appeal for mercy.
Scott's attorneys are arguing for a new trial but maintained that Scott was tried as an outlaw who should die and not for the murder of the murderer of the drug clerk. The defence also raised two technical grounds.

ROD AND GUN

The stories in the March issue of Rod and Gun in Canada are sure to excite the interest of every sportsman. Blazing All on Horse Sense, by E. Dalton/Tipping, Western Experiences by Donald Graham, The Tenderfoot by Roderick O'Neill, are a few of the entertaining stories contained in this number. Canada's Wild Buffalo by Maxwell Graham is an article brimful of interesting and valuable information on this subject. In addition there are the regular stories—That Tent and Thirty-Five Below by F. V. Williams, Slightly Mistaken by Martin Hunter, Some Adventures With the Great Horned Owl by Bonycastle Dale, and Emperor Geese and Queenly Swans by J. W. Wilson, which cover a variety of subjects and the departmental editors, W. C. Motley, R. Lincoln, C. S. Landis and M. U. Bates have brought their departments up to their usual high standard, helping to make the March number one of the best yet.

Mrs. Edmund Brink

With sorrow we have to announce the death of Mrs. Edmund Brink (nee Elizabeth Forest) which occurred at her home in Caplin on February 12th, at the age of 54 years after an illness of nearly two months following an attack of typhoid fever.

Just five weeks previous to the mother's death, the daughter "Martha" was called, an amiable young girl of twenty-three years.

Early in the fall Mr. Brink contracted typhoid while in the woods, he was hurriedly rushed home where he lay for months unable to help himself, all the while being cared for by Mrs. Brink and her daughter.

OBITUARY

Alexander Lefurgey — — —
There passed away on January 27th one of Tide Head's oldest residents in the person of Alexander Lefurgey. Deceased was in his seventy-seventh year and was a very active man for his age. His early days were spent hunting and trapping near the head waters of the Restigouche River, while in later years he took up lumbering as an occupation.

His death came as a great shock to the community as he had been in the best of health up until the very hour of his death. He died very suddenly while sitting in his chair by the fire.

He leaves to mourn his loss two sons, Albert at home and Sherman of Atholville, besides a large number of grand-children and a host of friends. The funeral services will be held at his late residence at Tide Head and was conducted by the Rev. A. Brock Humphreys assisted by Rev. E. V. Forbes, and was very largely attended.

George Robert Hardy Craswell Sincere sorrow and sense of personal loss is every hand in the passing away of Hardy Craswell. He was so well and favorably known in the whole community in which he lived as well as in Black Point, Campbellton and Matapedia.

Friends from all parts came to attend the funeral services which were held on Sunday afternoon by the Rev. J. McIntosh and Rev. J. R. Coleman.

The service at the house was very solemn and impressive as the pastor touching words of the deceased mentioning his name, and saying that his memory would be remembered for years to come for his kindness to old and young.

Though his young life had hung in the balance for some time, there was always a ray of hope entertained that he would yet be spared, and his patience, during his untold suffering was marvellous for one so young, just entering his twentieth year. A busy life full of promise, taken so very early, his sufferings at times were almost unbearable yet his great strength of body and will held him up as he wanted so much to be taken home, to see his loved ones before passing into the great beyond, but death seemed evident to him during the last few hours and though he laid all plans for leaving the hospital and coming home he never spoke of seeing anyone and a peaceful expression came over his face shortly before he left us.

We feel our loss deeply but it is enough that Christ is there and we shall be with him in the heavenly home that awaits the faithful.

The choir were all present and sang the following hymns, "The Lord's my Shepherd," "Hold Thou my Hand" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

The pall bearers were Alexander Wafer, Ivan Travers, Calvin Craswell, Floyd Craswell, John McIntosh and Hugh Blair.

He is survived by his grief stricken parents, three brothers and one sister, Howard, Dawson, Beverly and Margaret.

Floral offerings were given by Mr. and Mrs. Steve Nickerson and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Travers.

leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and affectionate mother 8 sons and 8 daughters. The sons are Joseph of St. Cas, de Caplin, Theo. of Seattle, Wash, and Henry at home, and the daughters are Mrs. Joseph Soucie, of Quebec, Jane at present teaching in New Richmond, and Marie at home, also three sisters and two brothers.

The family were all home except Theo. at the time of their mother's death he arrived several hours after she died which made it still harder for him after coming such a distance.

Our sincere sympathy goes to the grief stricken husband, and family especially to the little girl at home who in her tender years has been bereft of the mother she loved.

Interment took place on Saturday a. m. at 9 o'clock in the R. C. Cemetery.
