EVERY DEPARTMENT A LAUNDRY WAR.

The Proprietor of the Parisian Laundry Incorporated by Registered Employers

A short time ago the Parisian Steam Laundry issued a circular stating that having changed their drivers for just the public should not give any laundry work to drivers without first ascertaining that they drive for the Parisian

Laundry. A reporter interviewed Mr. Chiera, the proprietor yesterday, and was informed that in April last he had changed his employees, and was informed that in April last he had changed his employees, and was informed that in April last he had

DROUGHT AFFLICTS STREET CAR.

Peeninsula Collieries Shut Down For Want of Water. Wilkesbarre, Pa., Aug. 31.—This region is not visited within a few days by a heavy rain the lumbermen will lose thousands of dollars worth of valuable timber, which is rapidly falling a prey to flames.

In almost every direction from the city forest fires are raging and constantly extending. The drought is causing the suspension of work at numerous collieries, as it is impossible to get water for the boilers.

The street cars of Hamilton have been stopped, as the supply of water is too small to run the electric plant.

Whitecaps Whip a Respectable Woman. St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 31.—Mrs Sarah Henderson, keeper of a hotel at Agency Ford, was forcibly taken away from home by 12 white capers last night, and after being whipped with hickory switches, was hurried to leave the town at once and never return under threats of immediate death. She came to St. Joseph and consulted the prosecuting attorney.

The white capers gave no reason for their act. The woman has borne a good reputation.

15 Per Cent. Less Employed in Chicago. Chicago, Aug. 31.—It is estimated by Joe Graciani, statistician of the Health Department, that three-fourths of the working people who were out of employment last year are now earning wages. He bases his estimates on the same period of last year, when about 100,000 persons were out of work last summer, and 75,000 of them are now employed.

Mr. J. A. Rolston is commencing business in Bay-street, says that he did not influence any of the employees of the Parisian to leave either day or night. The doctors pronounced his case hopeless. A friend now, but I have not got the plant in."

Mr. Rolston further stated he has no knowledge of the discharge of any of the drivers now in his employ were calling on the customers of the Parisian for work. Mr. Rolston says that he has discharged the drivers were not discharged, but left on their own accord and gave the necessary week's notice.
