Obituary

One of the oldest residents of Ennis-killen passed away on Friday Oct. 22nd, in the person of Mrs. James Evans. The in the person of Mrs. James Evans. The deceased whose maiden name was Sarah Court, was born on the 19th of May 1831, in Guildford, Surrey County, England, and came to Canada with her parents when she was one year old. They settled on a farm three miles east of Arkona, where her girlhood years were spent and where she shared with others all the tripls and hardships common to piones. where she shared with others all the trials and hardships common to pioneer life. In the year 1851 she was married to James Evans, who predeceased her 47 years ago. For the past 31 years she has made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. McIntosh, of 6th line Ennisskillen, at which place she passed peacefully away after three years of patient suffering. Mrs. Evans was much respected and beloved wherever she was known and will long be missed by a large circle of friends and relatives to whom her kind heart, and christian sympathy circle of friends and relatives to whom her kind heart, and christian sympathy endeared her. Of a loving and patient cisposition her thoughts were more for others than herself. She was a devoted mother, a loving grandmother, and a kind friend to all with whom she came in contact. She is survived by three sons and one daughter, Mrs. Geo. McIntosh, Enniskillen; John Evans, Alpena, Mich.; Chas. Evans, of Rouleau, Sask., and W. J. Evans; of Arkona; also 23 grandchildren, 24 great grandchildren and 2 great great grand children services alieve held at her late home in Enniskillen on Saturday, after which the remains were brought to the home of her son in Arkona. The services on Sunday were conducted by Mr. Littleproud, of Sarnia, assisted by Mr. Littleproud, of Inwood, after which interment took place in Arkona cemetery. The pall bearers being 6 grandsons. During the service Mr. Hicks made special reference to her consistent christian life, and sang one of her favorite hymns, "I am waiting for the dawning."

Lambton Men s Opportunity

The 149th, or Lambton County Battalion, is now fully officered, Lieut.-Col. Kelly having submitted the list to Col. Shannon, Officer commanding the first Military Division at London. The list as published contains the names of many who have had experience as officers at annual Militia camps and a few who have had training in other units of the Canadian expeditionary forces, one of whom, Lieut. Stapleford, of Watford, saw service on the firing line in France and returned home on the wounded list. It is a large order to recruit over a thousand men in Lambton and calls for the enlistment of almost every able-bodied young man of military age and physically fit for war service. Recruitphysically fit for war service. Recruiting for other county battalions in this military division has been slow, so far, but it will probably pick up during the winter. Similar experience may be met with in this county at the start, but there is amplettime before next spring when the battalions will probably be assembled in compart I conductor some other points. the battaions will probably be assembled in camp at London or some other point tor final training before being sent overseas to fill up its ranks. There will be an insistant and continuous call upon the young men to show their patriotism by enlisting and if Sarnia and the rest of the county furnish their respective quotas the list of shirker will necessarily be small. Sarnia is expected to recruit be small. Sarnia is expected to recruit a complete company of 250 men and the other municipalities in Lambton county, to complete the battalion must raise 760. The officers of the battalion have their work cut out for them in their several neighborhoods. The hearty co-operation of local patriotic organizations and of the citizens generally will be needed to enable them to accomplish the desired result. Lambton's young men have now an opportunity for showing what they are made of.—Sarnia Observer.

Lambton Co-operative

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McKay, Egermont Road, Warwick, on Wednesday, Dec. 8th, at high noon, when their second daughter, Alberta Mae, was married to Mr. Neil A. Fair, a prosperous farmer and only son of Mr. Alex Fair, of Warwick, The examples was parfered. Warwick. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. Kennedy and attended only by the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The bride was becomingly attired in azure blue duchesse satin and lace and carried a boquet of white roses and was attended by her little neice, M. Loretta Minielly, who was dressed in white silk embroidery and carried the ring concealed in a basket of flowers. After the ceremony all sat down to a After the ceremony all sat down to a dainty wedding dinner, after which the bride and groom left on the afternoon train for Saginaw, Detroit and other points amid showers of confetti and rice. The bride travelled in a tailored suit of navy blue poplin and black hat. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Watford.
