persons have been deceived in buying me dicines which were said to be infallible cures, but which have proved only pallia tives, but this medicine is not only a pallicive but a cure for ulcerated lungs. It contains no deliterious Drugs and one trial will prove its astonishing efficacy better than any assertions or certificates in curing consumption and all diseases of the Lungs, such as Spitting of Blood, Coughs, pains in the side and chest, night sweats, &c. &c.

About 1000 certificates of almost miracu lous cures, performed by this medicine from some of the first Doctors, Clergymen and Merchants, have been sent us for medicine, but the publication of them look too much like Quackery, [will show then to any person calling at our office ] This BRANDY, GIN, TEA, &c. medicine will speak for itself and enough in its own favour wherever it is tried:
