GARAGE BURNED AT MIDDLETON

Middleton—The garage belonging to Mr. Emerson F. Greene, Commercial St., Middleton, was burned to the ground last Wednesday about nine o'clock, with all the contents, including a fine Studebaker Special car. Mr. Greene had been out in the car during the early hours of the evening, but had not driven any distance. He ran the car into the garage on his return and went into the house. He had not been in there more than ten minutes when the whole place was in a blaze.
