

THE LATEST AND BEST WORK ON RUSSIA.

THE RUSSIAN SHORES OF THE BLACK SEA,
With a VOYAGE DOWN THE VOLGA, AND A JOURNEY
THROUGH THE COUNTRY OF THE DON COSSACKS, by LAURENCE OLIPHANT, author of "A Journey to Nepaul," with two maps and eighteen illustrations.
12 mo, cloth, 75 cts.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

"The latest and best account of the actual state of Russia."—London Standard.

"The book of a quick and honest observer. Full of delightful entertainment."—London Examiner.

"A witness worth listening to on matters whereon good evidence is particularly difficult to obtain."—London Guardian.

"No work of similar character with the same lightness of execution has conveyed an equally clear idea of the vast empire composed of so many disproportionate parts."—London Critic.

"Mr. Oliphant has not only travelled where few European travellers have been before him, but he has wandered amid scenes of which everybody is anxious to hear. His clear and rapid descriptions set objects before our eyes with unpretending vividness; and the notes he jots down are always worth attending to."— London Leader.

IN PRESS.

FIFTY YEARS IN BOTH HEMISPHERES, by VINCENT NOLTE. 1 vol. 12 mo, cloth.