MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

This society is known as the Albert College Branch of the Inter-Collegiate Missionary Alliance. It was organized at the beginning of this college year. The object of the society is to encourage among students an active interest in, and so far as possible, consecration to mission work, both home and foreign. A public meeting of the society is held in the College Chapel at 4 p.m. on the fourth Sunday of each month. At these meetings essays are read and addresses are given relating to mission work. There is in connection with this society a "Volunteer's Band," with a membership at present of fifteen young men, who have offered their services for the foreign field. The society purpose sending out a missionary to Africa when they have secured sufficient means.

The present officers of the society are:—Hon. Pres., Rev. W. P. Dyer, M.A.; Pres., J. F. Morrison; Vice-Pres., W. E. Smith; Secretary, A. Y. Massey; Cor.-Sec., H. A. Baylis; Treas., W. A. Chant; Librarian, A. B. Singleton.

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. of Albert College is a branch of the Young Men's International Christian Association, and was established in 1879. It has been a powerful instrument in the development of the religious life of the students. Devotional meetings are held from 9 to 10 every Sabbath morning. These services always proving to be times of spiritual blessing. During the present year God has abundantly blessed the efforts of the association, not only in strength have Christians been strengthened, but many others have been led to a saving knowledge of God in Christ Jesus. Classes under the leadership of Messrs. Morrison, Patterson, Hollinrake, and Whale have been formed in connection with the association for the systematic study of the Bible. The officers of the society are—Pres., J. H. McBain; Vice-Pres., H. A. Baylis; Rec.-Sec., W. A. Chant; Cor.-Sec., W. E. Smith; Treasurer, Geo. Nichol.

PHILOMATHIAN SOCIETY.

This society is at present in a very flourishing condition. The membership is larger than ever before, and the interest in the meetings is increasing. Election of officers is held every three months. This is always the occasion of excitement amongst the boys. The last election was very keenly contested. The society meets regularly every Friday night, when an interesting programme is provided.

The following are the officers of the society:—Hon. Pres., Rev. Browing; Pres., R. B. McAmmond; Vice-Pres., F. W. Hollinrake; Sec., A. B. Singleton; Ass-Sec., M. Dean; Treas., W. Boyce; Chorister, J. K. Pickett; Librarian, F. Grisdale; Chaplain, A. N. Chisholm; Attorney, T. T. German; Court, Mallory, VanAllen, A. H. Brown.
