FOREST, . . . LAKE & PRAIRIE.

TWENTY YEARS OF FRONTIER LIFE IN WESTERN CANADA.

By REV. JOHN McDUGALL.

WITH 27 ORIGINAL FULL-PAGE ILLUSTRATIONS, BY J. E. LAUGHLIN.

CLOTH, $1.00.

MR. McDUGALL gives us in the 267 pages of this book a narrative of the first twenty years of his life, all spent on the mission fields of the Methodist Church. Born in 1842, in the then frontier village of Owen Sound, at 17 our author moved with his father, the noble, heroic George McDougall, to the North-West.

Full of thrilling interest is his description of the journey to Norway House. When they landed at Fort Garry, en route, he writes: "I climbed the banks and saw the walls and bastions of the fort, and looked out northward on the plain, and saw one house. Where that house stood now stands the city of Winnipeg." The succeeding chapters are alive with stories of adventure by flood and field, and will be eagerly devoured by the boys.

The illustrations—the work of a clever young Toronto artist—add greatly to the interest.

Practical Talks...

On Important Themes.

BY

REV. H. T. CROSSLEY.

Cloth, $1.00.

Those who know Mr. Crossley—and who does not!—need not be told that his book is terse, practical and spiritual in tone. It contains 61 talks on living questions, such as "Blunders About Providences," "Fasting," "The Lord's Supper," "Music," "Reading," "Health," "Temptation," "The Unpardonable Sin," etc. In the book will be found a fair and full discussion of "The Parlor Dance," "The Theatre," "Cards," "The Weed," "Liquor," etc. In the last thirty-one addresses important counsel is given to young converts and others in the Christian life. The volume contains 400 pages, is neatly bound, with a handsome design in gold showing portraits of Crossley and Hunter on the cover, and is really a marvel of cheapness at one dollar. It is bound to have a wide circulation. Ministers and Christian workers should get it and recommend it to others.

The Indians of Canada.

THEIR MANNERS, CUSTOMS AND TRADITIONS.

BY JOHN McLEAN, M.A., Ph.D.

With 23 Illustrations. Cloth, $1.00.

CONTENTS: Indian Customs—Camps and Wigwags—Indian Heroes—Indian Traditions—The Land of the Red Men—Frontier Tales—Indian Languages and Literature—The Indian Problem—Christianity and the Red Race—Do Indian Missions Pay?

The author of this valuable work spent nine years among the Blood Indians of the Canadian Northwest, studying their language, customs, mythology and traditions, and has incorporated into this volume the results of his observations and much of the mythology and folk-lore gathered while among them. Dr. McLean was a correspondent for years of the British Association, the Smithsonian Institution, and other learned societies, to whom he supplied much information of a nature akin to that given us in the pages of this interesting volume.
