The Prescott Rifle Company.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather the Prescott Rifles, under the command of Col. Jessup, showed they were not to be looked upon as "feather bed" soldiers, and on Monday, the day appointed, turned out in gallant style. They presented a soldier-like appearance and marched well. They are all active, fine looking fellows, and quite a credit to our town, and their commander may well be proud of them. Their proficiency in drill exceeded our anticipations, and we think the Baron de Rottenburgh, our Adjutant General, will find that they will sustain the reputation he gave them of being as good a company in every respect as the Province has yet produced. The Band, under the able management of Mr. Wilson gave evident signs of rapid improvement, and considering the short space of time they have been able to avail themselves of Mr. Wilson's services, it must be a source of gratification to him to see the aptness of his pupils, as well as it is pleasing to our townsmen, to have their hearts gladdened with good music, looking forward to moonlight nights and fairy music on the waters of old Father St. Lawrence. It requires but the will—the way is before you. Go on, boys, and may success crown your efforts.—Prescott Messenger.
