

nator Guevremont, Alderman A. C. Trempe, representatives of the Sorelois, with a number of prominent citizens; were at the station to meet the illustrious visitor ; whilst forty carriages were in attendance to escort the good Prelate from the Station to the Presbytery. George and King Streets were fairly lined with people, great numbers also at the Richelieu Market place, Hotel-de-Ville, Bureau de Poste, etc.

A number of the clergy were at the Pastoral Residence to receive His Lordship, whilst the Church bells, school-bells, and those of other places rang out their chimmes joyously . . . . .

His Lordship, Rt. Rev. Bishop Gravel of Nicolet, arrived in the afternoon, by the Berthier, and proceeded to the Presbytery immediately. A few minutes after, the bells rang, calling the people of the City to the Church.

Rt. Rev. Bp. Gravel delivered an eloquent sermon, after which, Bishop Moreau blessed the statue of Saint Vincent de Paul, which ceremony was followed by a representation given by the children of the Orphanage.

On the following day, a very imposing Feast was held at Ste-Anne of Sorel.

At about nine o'clock in the morning, a Grand High Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. C. Bernard, Pastor of Sorel, assisted by Rev. Father Bouvier, Pastor of St-Joseph of Sorel, as Deacon, and by Rev. Father Pratte, Director of the Seminary of St-Hyacinthe, as Sub-Deacon.

After the Mass, Rt. Rev. Bishop Moreau blessed the Statues of the Four Evangelists, after which ceremony, a substantial banquet was held in the Presbytery.

AUGUST 28.—On that day, has taken place the Installation of our Sisters in the Monastery at Nicolet, to which the venerated Bishop of the Diocese has given the beautiful name of Saint-Joseph-of-the-Precious-Blood.

Deign, O Blessed Saint Joseph, great Protector of contemplative communities, to develop the humble spirit of Nazareth in the new House so specially confided to your care.

We will publish the details of the Installation in the October Number.
