

What the Recamier Preparations are and why they are to be used.

Recamier Cream, which is first of these world famous preparations, is made from the recipe used by Julie Recamier. It is not a cosmetic, but an emollient to be applied at night just before retiring, and to be removed in the morning by bathing freely. It will remove tan and sunburn, pimples, red spots or blotches, and make your face and hands as smooth, as white and as soft as an infant's.

Recamier Balm is a beautifier, pure and simple. It is not a whitewash, and unlike most liquids Recamier Balm is exceedingly beneficial and is absolutely imperceptible except in the delicate freshness and youthfulness which it imparts to the skin.

Recamier Lotion will remove freckles and moth patches, is soothing and efficacious for any irritation of the cuticle, and is the most delightful of washes for removing the dust from the face after travelling, and is also invaluable to gentlemen to be used after shaving.

Recamier Powder is in three shades, white, flesh and cream. It is the finest powder ever manufactured, and is delightful in the nursery, for gentlemen after shaving and for the toilet generally.

Recamier Soap is a perfectly pure article guaranteed free from animal fat. This soap contains many of the healing ingredients used in compounding Recamier Cream and Lotion.

The RECAMIER TOILET PREPARATIONS are positively free from all injurious ingredients, and CONTAINS NEITHER LEAD, BISMUTH or ARSENIC, as attested to after a searching analysis by such eminent scientists as

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

All even numbered sections, excepting 8 and 26, are open for homestead and pre-emption entry.

ENTRY.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, or the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, receive authority for some one near the local office to make the entry for him.

DUTIES.

Under the present law homestead duties may be performed in three ways:

1. Three years' cultivation and residence. During which period the settler may not be absent for more than six months in any one year without forfeiting the entry.

2. Residence for three years within two miles of the homestead quarter section and afterwards next prior to application for patent, residing for 3 months in a habitable house erected upon it. Ten acres must be broken the first year after entry, 15 acres additional in the second, and 15 in the third year; 10 acres to be in crop the second year, and 25 acres the third year.

3. A settler may reside anywhere for the first two years, in the first year breaking 5 acres, in the second cropping said 5 acres and breaking additional 10 acres, also building a habitable house. The entry is forfeited if residence is not commenced at the expiration of two years from date of entry. Thereafter the settler must reside upon and cultivate his homestead for at least six months in each year for three years.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

may be made before the local agent, any homestead inspector, or the intelligence officer at Medicine Hat or Qu'Appelle Station.

Six months' notice must be given in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands by a settler of his intention prior to making application for patent.

Intelligence offices are situate at Winnipeg, Qu'Appelle Station and Medicine Hat. Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at any of these offices, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them.

A SECOND HOMESTEAD

may be taken by any one who has received a homestead patent or a certificate of recommendation, countersigned by the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, upon application for patent made by him prior to the second day of June, 1887.

All communications having reference to lands under control of the Dominion Government, lying between the eastern boundary of Manitoba and the Pacific Coast, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to H. H. Smith, Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

HUMOUROUS.

ONE trouble with Canada is that she takes herself too seriously.—New York Tribune.

ONE trouble with the United States is that they'd take her any way they could get her—if it did not cost too much.—Halifax Chronicle.

BEACON HILL: Reject me, if you will, but don't add insult to injury! Your cousin Belle would be glad to take me! Miss Boylston; Perhaps she would. She's an amateur photographer.

A FRENCH Gentleman, after a grouse drive in Scotland, being asked by his host what he has killed, replied—"Of ze grouse none—zey are too difficult; but of ze vild sheep I have seven over ze hill!"

MABLE: Let's play house; I'll be the mother. George: Yes, and I'll be the father. Clara: And I'll be the cook. Mable and George (indignantly): Yes, that's just you. You always want to be boss of everything.

MAMMA: Well, Nellie, what did you learn at Sunday school, to-day? Nellie: That I must sell three tickets for the concert next week, give twenty cents to buy a present for the superintendent and—that Noah built the ark.

"How do, Uncle Joe?" Taking your morning walk around the park?" "Not exactly, sah. I finds I ain't able to walk all roun' no mo' sence my las' touch o' rheumatiz, so I jus' walks half way roun' an' back again, sah."

CONFIDENCE IN THE OLD HERO.—"Did you ever run away in battle, grandpa?" asked the little girl of the one-legged veteran. "How foolish," cried the little boy. "Of course grandpa never ran away. Grandpa hopped away."

A LADY tells us that she heard a coloured preacher say: "De fo' part of de house will please sit down, fo' de hind part cannot see de fo' part if de fo' part persist in standing befo' de hind part, to de uttuh obclusion ob de hind part by de fo' part."

FELT SURE OF HIS OWN STANDING.—Young Hopeful: Papa, who are the real gentlemen? Puzzled but Proud Parent: Well, dear, it is hard to tell nowadays, but whenever you want to judge for yourself your father will answer for a model.

ALICE: What an awfully rude girl Minnie Thompson is! Maude: Indeed? I never noticed it. Alice: Just think—after she had passed me on the street this afternoon, I actually caught her looking back at me four times. Maude: Oh, my, how awful!

NEIGHBOURLY AT ANY RATE.—Mr. Tibbett (to Mrs. Brown, who has lately moved into the neighbourhood): Good afternoon, Mrs. Brown. I'm your neighbour across the way. Folks on this street are so unsocial. They never call on anyone unless they happen to be just so nice; and I knew you would be lonesome.

TESTY OLD GENT.—Huh! do you think you can support my daughter in the style to which she has been accustomed? Young Suitor: Well, no; but I can support her in the style to which her mother was accustomed for a good many years after she married you. Old Gent (subdued): Take her, my son, and be happy.

LITTLE GIRL (reading history): "This brave nobleman left his home in Paris, where he was captain of dragoons, and where he had been lately married, to cross the water and fight for the Americans." Teacher: Now, can you tell me what prompted this brave man to do this?" Little Girl: Please, ma'am, he had lately married.

SHE (over an ice): Do you care for Ibsen at all? He (who has never heard of him): Ye-es; I rather think I do. She: Yet you speak as if you did not specially admire him. He (to gain time): Oh, really you know, that is hardly fair—. She: At least you will grant he is original. "A Doll's House," for instance, is quite unlike anything else of the sort. He (not knowing whether it's a book, picture, or musical composition): Original, perhaps; but (pulling his moustache) don't you think it's—er—rather faulty, too? She: Why, no; I thought the plot strong and interesting. He (relieved at last to have caught on): Oh, yes: interesting without doubt, but (loftily) I'm rather tired, don't you know, of children's stories since the Fauntleroy craze.
