SIR RICHARD TEMPLE ON
MISSIONARY ADMINIS-TRATION IN INDIA.

SIR RICHARD TEMPLE, late Governor of Bombay, recently presided at a Missionary meeting in England, and said:—"You may be confident that the missions in India are doing a work which strengthens the moral foundations of British power, and raises our national repute among the hundreds of millions of people committed to our charge. You may also be confident when I appeal for your pecuniary support, that the results are fully commensurate with the expenditure. As an old Finance Minister of India I ought to know, if anybody does, when the money's worth is got by any operation, and having administered provinces which contain, first and last, no less than 105,000,000 of British India, I say that, of all the departments I have ever administered, I never saw one more efficient than the missionary department, and of all the hundreds of thousands of officers I have had under my command, I have never seen a better body of men than the Protestant missionaries. I say this also, that of all the departments I have administered, I have never known one in which a more complete result was got from the expenditure than in that great, that grand department which is represented by the Protestant mission. Gentlemen you may say that you ought to have not only statistics and reports, but evidence also, and corroboration of all the fine things that are told you. I say, that for all the statistics that are published by the missionaries, you have absolute official verification that the census of the native Christians of India is as trustworthy as the census of the population of British India itself; that all the main facts upon which you rely, if you give your subscriptions, are as certain as any financial, or commercial, or political or administrative fact whatever."

"FIFTY years ago," said Earl Cairns at a meeting of the Church Missionary Society, "if a man had been shipwrecked on some of the islands of the Pacific, he would have been killed, cooked and eaten; whereas if a man were shipwrecked there now, he would receive Christian hospitality. Miss Gordon Cumming, who is not a missionary, and who did not write for the purpose of missions, declared that while in 1835 the people of Fejee were cannibals, they are now 400 churches and 1400 schools there. Lady Brassey writes that anybody who wants to see the last traces of heathenism in Japan had better go soon, as they are rapidly giving place to Christianity."

WHEN a man has really found Christ he longs to bring his brother also. In no better way can this be practically done than by assisting by your alms the missionary societies nearest at your doors.

MISSIONS.

THE Nova Scotia Board of Domestic and Foreign Missions asks for contributions towards the work in Algoma and the North-West, and the Foreign Field. Funds are urgently needed. From returns presented to the Provincial Synod, Nova Scotia is far behind the other Dioceses in the amount of its contributions to these objects. Address the Secretary.

HAVILL'S

LUNG HEALER!

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs.

THE LUNG HEALER is the most efficacious preparation for the cure of Colds, Coughs, Laryngitis, Croup, Hoarseness, Bronchitis and Asthma.

The LUNG HEALER affords the most effectual relief for Consumption, in its advanced stages.

Hundreds of testimonials have been received, we publish two of them and think they speak plainly of the efficacy of the LUNG HEALER:—

MR. HAVILL,
DEAR SIR,—It is with pleasure that I add my testimony to your list, in favor of your Lung Healer. I had a very bad cough and pain in my lungs, I procured a bottle of your Lung Healer and it gave me immediate relief, and in a few days the cough was completely gone. I feel I cannot say too much in favor of your valuable medicine, and accordingly I advocate its use on all suitable occasions. There are several persons taking it through my recommendation, and in every instance with a favorable result.
Yours most respectfully,
(Signed), JOHN W. BLACKLEY,
Cornwallis St. Halifax N. S.

Halifax, N. S. March 26th, 1880.

MR. HAVILL,
DEAR SIR,—For the last 10 or 12 years I have suffered greatly from asthma, having an attack every few weeks, but last November I was induced to give Havill's Lung Healer a trial, and I did so with very good results. It gave me immediate relief and I am happy to state that I have not felt it since. I can therefore well recommend it as a cure for Asthma, and also for cold and all diseases of the lungs, as I have seen its cure in our own family.

Yours respectfully,
J. I. CHASE.
