Our Book Department is a very special work with us. Only well-made books handled here, and those sold for closest prices. Webster's great Unabridged Dictionary, with 80 pages of pictorial illustrations, $1.25; thousands and thousands have been sold for from $8 to $10. The best works of all the greatest and most popular authors, in paper covers, 5c. each, regular price 25c.; in well bound, 15c.; in best cloth bound 19c., regular price 30c. The greatest display of Picture Books we have ever seen in this store—headquarters for them at one-half usual prices. Boy's Own Book, Boy's Own Annual, Girl's Own Book, Girl's Own Annual, Chatterbox, Mother Goose's Rhymes, with most striking illustrations. One of the grandest books of our times, called "Golden Treasures, or a World of Knowledge," have been largely sold here for $5 for half morocco and $6.50 for full morocco. We are selling the hundred we have for $1.49 and $1.99—an elegant present.

We are closing a new stock of finest Albums from an importer at less than half value, for he sorely needs the money and they must be sold; price, 8 cents each up to $3.99, regular price 25 cents to $10. We are already selling 50 to 100 dolls per day, but we have the largest stock we have ever carried, from ordinary to finest.

And our reputation for selling cheapest of all is not going to suffer in your estimation. Never in the history of the trade have goods been slaughtered from manufacturers as this trying year, and we have been getting for you some of the grandest values. Especially is this true in better lines and high-priced goods. Gents' manure set in elegant leather, usually sold from $5 to $10, we are selling for $2 to $3.75.

The grandest display of plush and leather goods we have ever had, and the prices are most noticeably right.

We still keep all house-furnishing goods moving in woodenware, tinware and ironware, at what ought to be popular prices. Eddy's best tubs, three sizes, 49c., 59c. and 69c. each; regular prices, 75c. to $1.

The best and completest clothes-wringers in the world, $2.99; regular price, $5. Six dozen of the best of best finish for 5c. Splendid cotton clothes-lines, 10c., 12c. and 14c., from 5 to 70 feet long. No. 8 copper-bottom boiler, 92c. No. 9, $1.19. Regular prices, $1.75 to $2.

We want you to see our splendid show of baskets, from the cheapest 4c. market basket up to the finest German willow baskets, at half usual prices.

W. H. BENTLEY.
