

mand are about equal. So soon as the roads improve it is probable that receipts will be large, and dealers may expect an accumulation of stock. We quote: Large rolls, 14 to 16c.; pound prints, 14 to 18c.; dairy tubs, 15 to 16c.; bakers, 8 to 12c. per lb. Creamery butter continues to hold firm with no accumulation of stock. We quote: Tubs, 19 to 20c.; pound prints, 21 to 22c. per lb. The export enquiry for cheese has improved and exporters are confidently expecting affairs abroad to show continued improvement throughout March. The local demand is fairly good, early summer makes jobbing at 9 to 9½c., and autumn goods at 9½ to 10c. per lb. Elsewhere we review the situation in dressed hogs and products; dealers are paying $4.75 to 5.00 for dressed hogs, while products remain unaltered in price. Receipts of new laid eggs are increasing daily; prices are gradually declining. New laid are quoted 17 to 17½c. per doz.; pickled are scarce at 13½ to 14c.; held fresh are difficult to sell, holders taking bidders' prices. Trade in dried and evaporated apples is slow; dealers quote dried 4½ to 4¾c. and evaporated 6½ to 6¾c. per lb.; these purchases are made at 1c. per lb. less.

SEEDS.—There is a somewhat freer movement of the Canadian crop of red clover. In some sections of the Province, there is a considerable quantity of fine seed; country dealers realize about $5 per bushel at outside points. The consumptive demand from the home market is stronger. The export season for alsike clover is so far advanced that foreign buyers do not manifest any disposition to buy, unless at sufficient concessions in value to allow them to carry the seed over into the next season. Prices in this market are, in consequence, a shade weaker; values to outside dealers range between $3 and $4.25 per bush., with the latter price paid only for choice seed. In timothy seed, practically no change has taken place in the market since our report. The recent heavy winter weather has affected trade. In order to affect sales of flax seed, holders are obliged to make concessions in price. Some export trade is doing, but prices are very unsatisfactory.
