

Three out of four Canadians live in cities located mostly in the heavily populated zone along the border shared with the United States.

Population of the main metropolitan areas* is:

Toronto	2,803,101
Montreal	2,802,485
Vancouver	1,166,348
Ottawa-Hull	693,288
Winnipeg	578,217
Edmonton	554,288
Quebec	542,158
Hamilton	529,158
Calgary	469,915

*Source:
Statistics Canada,
April 21, 1978

By 2000 A.D., the Toronto metropolitan area may have 7 million residents, metropolitan Montreal 6 million and metropolitan Vancouver 2.5 million.

