

Although the impact is not immediate, the development of European telecommunications standards under the auspices of ETSI will continue to be of utmost importance to Canadian manufacturers in the sector. In parallel with the transparency measures for the CEN and CENELEC process (see page 24), the SCC is making arrangements with ETSI to secure access to draft standards for review and comment.

---