

far on third reading. I think that his statements have been utterly ridiculous.

Mr. E. Nasserden (Rosthern): Mr. Speaker, may I say with regard to some of the statements made by the hon. member for Medicine Hat (Mr. Olson) concerning the passage of business of the house that we could save a great deal of time if the members of his party would vote in accordance with what they say on matters that are before the house. They have supported the government on every occasion even after having criticized the legislation before the house.

The Deputy Speaker: Is the house ready for the question?

The house divided on the amendment (Mr. Knowles) which was negatived on the following division:
