

27th December, 1929.

Professor J. W. Eaton, University of Michigan,
Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Eaton,

I am sorry indeed
that I was not in the office today when you called for I should have been glad to see you again.

I congratulate you on the position you now hold at the University of Michigan and wish you every possible success.

Cordially reciprocating your good wishes,

I am,

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal.
