

160. I should have written you sooner, but neglected it, but hope I am not too late yet, so hoping I will receive it by your kindness, and you will much oblige yours truly. ✓
161. Monday, the 13th July, was duly celebrated by the Orangemen of the district, it being the 190th anniversary of the battle of the Boyne, in a manner of no discredit to the organization.
162. About 11 a.m. they had the misfortune of being the recipients of a most drenching shower, which had the tendency to put a damper for a time to their enjoyment.
163. To try to give a synopsis of both the sermons, which were both eloquent and able, would not give justice to him and must be heard to be appreciated.
164. In the evening there could not be less than 700, as the aisles were completely packed—not even standing-room—and several had to go away for want of standing-room. ✓
165. The pastor occupied the chair in his usual happy style, and opened the meeting by prayer, and after a few words congratulatory to those present, and the great pleasure he felt from the general appearance all around him, felt thankful to the Head of the Church for the harmony and unity which still prevails.
166. Whereas the Committee being so well satisfied with the printing done for them by the T. Printing Company, be it therefore resolved that we tender our thanks to the Company for the neatness and taste displayed, and that we not only consider the bills a credit to the T. office, but also to the city.
167. Fitz-James wounded Roderick three times, who soon felt the loss of blood and began to shower blows fiercer than ever, but his rage was no match for the Saxon's skill; who soon forced Roderick's sword from him and brought him to his knees.
168. I warn you against these sharpers that only carry with them a jack-knife and file, as these pretenders have never had any experience, nor never learned their trade as mechanics,
