MARKET IS CHOKED BY EARLY APPLES

Quality Poor — Values Down Fifteen to Thirty Cents a Basket.

RASPBERRIES DONE

Practically No Demand for Currants, Gooseberries, Cherries.

Apples are a glut on the market, chiefly because they are of very poor quality. They are now selling at 15c to 30c per 11-quart basket.

Raspberries are just about the fruit now being sent on the market being small, and the bulk of them are not very good. Yesterday they brought from 11c to 15c per box.

Red currants, gooseberries, black currants and cherries are all hard to sell, as there is practically no demand for them.

Wholesale Fruit, 10c to 15c per 11-quart basket. Apples—Canadian, 15c to 25c per 11-quart basket; American, 15c to 25c per 11-quart basket.

Canadian Press Despatch.

LONDON, Aug. 7.—The Berlin correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, who has reached Stockholm, sends the following despatch:

"The scene witnessed at Sessmith, a famous watering place on the east coast of the German island of Rugen, in the Baltic Sea, baffled all description. Some 5000 Russian refugees turned out on the quay, left to struggle for access to a steamer which was the verge of starvation. Some of the refugees were half mad with hunger, thirst and lack of sleep."

"One family had a letter of credit for 20,000 roubles ($10,000), but were on the verge of starvation. Some of the refugees were half mad with hunger, thirst and lack of sleep."

"The correspondent says that harrowing stories have been told by refugees who are arriving at Stockholm by the thousands. Many of them were moved about by the train for four or five days, without any idea as to what was being done for them. Foreigners taking the cure at Wiesbaden and Kissingen were glad to crowd the fourth class cars in their desire to get away."

"They were like people in crates," the correspondent adds, "without food or drink, and almost without air for fifteen hours at a time. During the nights when they were not in the train they were turned into cow sheds at slaughter houses. Everywhere they were subjected to a continuous fire of insults from the troops, especially the officers. Women of delicate build were openly threatened with violence, and all before the declaration of war."

"Outrageous Treatment. Corn. Among the victims was Mr. Kasso, former Russian minister of education. Twice he was placed under arrest, in spite of the knowledge of his identity, and packed into a fourth-class carriage. Councillor of State Schreiber and his wife were assaulted by officers, to whom they ventured to complain. Wives were separated from husbands and parents from their children. No consideration was shown either for age, sex or infirmity. Many persons were in ignorance of the whereabouts of those dearest to them."

"The Standard's Berlin correspondent says that all persons of Russian origin abroad who previously had been rejected by the army as unfit for service, have now been summoned to the colors."
