TWO SENIOR GAMES ON TODAY'S CARD

Varsity and the Old Boys, and Argos and Hamilton R.C.

Toronto fans will get their first taste of senior Rugby today, when two of the local teams will be seen in action. Varsity take on the Old Boys at the Stadium, and the college must win to get an even break with the "Has Beens." Billy Foulds has rounded up the ex-U. of T. players in style, and they will put a formidable team on the field.

The Varsity team is practically a new one this year, and the followers of the students will have a chance to look them over, as Capt. Gage will give every man a chance.

Up at Rosedale Argonauts are making their initial appearance in an exhibition game with the Hamilton Rowing Club senior O.R.F.U. Hamilton is strong in every department, and the Argos will have to move to score a win. Mat Gonter is out with injuries and Smirl Lawson will be at Varsity, and the Argos will show a new back line for this game. Argos have abundance of material, and it should be a good contest.

Parkdale junior O.R.F.U. men whose names appear below are asked to turn out at Trinity College campus at 3 o'clock sharp this afternoon for the game with Balmy Beach: Delaporte, Birdsall, Wedd, Percy, Langdon, Avery, Kinnear, Swalm, Lane, Sparrow, Smith, Helk, Garrett, Ward, Kellog, Evans, A. Lynch, J. Lynch, Tuthill and Edmanson.

The High Park-West-end game of the Senior City Rugby League, will be played off at Trinity College at 2 o'clock sharp, before the Balmy Beach-Parkdale Canoe Club game. Clubs kindly note.

West-end "Y"s senior Boys' Union League team will practise at Trinity College grounds this afternoon at 2 o'clock. All wishing to make the team are requested to be on hand, as we want to get the team rounded into shape for our first game.

A big surprise was sprung in the opening games of the High School League yesterday when Riverdale defeated Jarvis 11 to 7 for the first time in history. Parkdale defeated Harbord 14 to 8 in a great game, and Oakwood were defeated by Humberside 13 to 0.

SEVEN MOTORCYCLE RACES.

Seven motorcycle events and two British Rugby football games make up the grand wind-up program at the Motordrome this season. Good weather should see a good crowd down for the finale. The races start at 3 o'clock. The Rugby games start at 2 o'clock.

Parkdale line-up: Wings, Verity, Leeming, Holmes, Simpson, Stone, Marter; scrimmage, Murdock, Johnson, Leonard; quarter, Vandervoort; halves, Kennedy, Chilcock, Hall, Farrell. Referee: De Gruchy. LACROSSE TEAMS HAVE FINE RECORD

London and Weston Play Intermediate O.A.L.A. Semi-Final Today.

All roads lead to Weston today, where the last semi-final game of the intermediate O.A.L.A. series will be played at 3 o'clock. Weston have a lead of two goals from the previous game played in London last Saturday.

London have two good players in D. Holley and D. Aitchison, who formerly played with Weston, so when these teams line up it should be interesting. Weston have gathered together the best team in years and have disposed of a lot of teams from the semi-final series. After winning their district by defeating the Orioles they disposed of Fergus, Maitlands and Marmora, and if they beat London today a sudden-death game will likely follow a week later with Bracebridge at Newmarket, when a championship looks rosy for Weston.

So far Weston have scored some 80 goals to 31 against them in eight games, an average of four goals a game against them, and have only been beaten in one game, by the Maitlands, by one goal. Weston has a sturdy and fairly heavy team from goal to inside home and plenty of speed. The four defence men, in McEwen, Holley, Ramshaw and Clayton, are like a stone wall to penetrate, while Riley at centre has speed to burn, and if properly coached should develop into a valuable man. On the home they have a heady and fast scoring division in Harrison, Dickens, G. Coulter, H. Coulter and Smith, and with the system and team play they use should give any senior amateur team a good game. Rowntree in goal also deserves a lot of the credit, for his coolness, quick clearing and good fielding ability behind the net has turned a near defeat into victory. Some nine hundred tickets have already been sold, and as many more fans are expected when the players take the field. All places of business will be closed during the game and arrangements are being made for the Weston Prize Band to accompany the boys to the field. Frank Doyle, the secretary-treasurer of the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association, will referee.

B. KING WINS FIRST WEST END HANDICAP

The first weekly handicap run of the fall took place last night at the West End Y.M.C.A. from the club house to Bloor street, about a mile. Result:

1. B. King (10 seconds), 5.15.
2. F. McCullough (scr.), 5.05.
3. O. Johnson (20 seconds), 5.15.

About thirty runners took part.

Billy Hay says:

"No matter how hard you hit an Irishman, the ever-flowing spring of humor and optimism in his make-up will bring him to his feet smiling.

"The harder he's hit, the higher he bounces, and whether you find him in the vanguard fighting the nation's battles or at 'Donnybrook,' joyously wielding his 'slither o' bog oak,' if you listen you will catch the lilt of a song.

"Long after the wounds of the enemy have healed, they will remember the pulsing strains of 'It's a Long Way to Tipperary,' and will wonder at the souls of the men who could go through Hell singing.

"Bidding fair to rival the song in popularity comes the TIPPERARY TIE, with its beautifully blended shades of green. It is new, neat and novel, but with such soft, rich harmonies of color that even the 'quietest' dresser will wear it.

"The 'TIPPERARY TIE' is shown in our windows today, together with a splendid showing of genuine Donegal homespun Suits and Overcoats.

"I want you to see these cloths that are made on the hand looms of the Irish peasantry—and I want you to wear a 'TIPPERARY' TIE.

"Take a 'tip,' it's the smile and the song we find in our hearts these days that keeps

"'BUSINESS AS USUAL.'

"The price of the tie? I forgot! 50 cents."
