

OFFICE SPECIALTY FILING SYSTEMS

SIMPLICITY

That's what makes a filing or record-keeping system 100 per cent. usable. Simplicity—with all non-essential operations cut away; with facts and data easily and instantly accessible.

Whether it's a mailing list, pay-roll record, sales report or a personal desk system—there's one best way to keep it—a simple, effective way.

The System Department here studies filing systems in every kind of business and for every filing purpose. It analyzes, removes non-essentials, reconstructs, adapts. When the system is ready for operation it's right, of that you may be sure. And simple too, compatible with efficiency.

Take advantage of our System Service when you've a filing or record-keeping problem on your hands. Analyses made and reports submitted without fee or charge.
