THE OTTAWA VALLEY.

DIFFECTION OF THE STATE AND ALL AND ALLESS AND ALLES

Met hiraits. Mr. David McAuliffe, of the firm of W. 11. McAuliffe & Co., lumber dealers, Ottawa, has veturned from Burlington, Vt., where he passed the holidays and transacted business with the American trade.

One of the most popular members of the Ottawa company of the first Canadian contin-gent, now in South Africa, is Allan Gilmour, son of Mr. John Gilmour, of the firm of Gil-mour & Hughson, the weil known mill owners of Ottawa of Otta

Mr. E. Harper Wade, Quebec representative of McArthur Bros., was in Ottawa this week on private business. Mr. Wade states that his firm will not cut so extensively on their limits this season as heretofore, owing to the fact that the timber if left standing pro-mises to bring in better financial returns than if cut and solid at present high prices. Ottawa contractors and retail and whole-sale lumber dealers continue to find great difficulty in securing the necessary sup-plies of lumber from the mill owners, as the latter, if they have notalready sold their standing cut, prefer to hold it for the outside markets. Box lumber and culls for the American market are sill quoted at high figures, while lath are in great demand. The introduction of me-tallic shingles and roofing, however, has cur-tailed the demand for the product of the shingle mill, and the price has not advanced as rapidly as in the case of lath, indispensable in building operations. The higher grades of lumber for both the English and American markets show little advance. OTTAWA, Jan. 5th, 1900.

THE BOSTON MARKET. Indence of the CANADA LUMBERMAN.] (Correspo

The market on spruce lumber is little chang-ed. It is possible that where a mill can start up sawing and is in want of orders prices might be shaded. But there are very few of such mills, the low water and lack of logs keeping them idle. There is now more snow in the woods and hauling has commenced in pool earnest. Aurement mices are still the rule. good earnest. Agreement prices are still the rule, and yet something is sold occasionally for less :

Hardwood lumber is in the midst of the winter quiet, and yet there is a fair movement. Quartered oak continues firm, with the supply limited. Plain oak and ash are in quiet re-quest. There is a better demand for maple :
