

SUPPLY—REPORTS FROM PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE—Con.

Accounts Committee in excluding evidence or restricting inquiry into receipts and expenditure of public money and the circumstances in connection therewith should be subject to appeal to this House and upon request for that purpose the necessary report of proceedings ought immediately to be ordered—Mr. Blain (Peel)—3070.

Barker, Samuel (Hamilton)—3138.

Persistent interference with progress of business of the committee—3138. No fault to find with the Chairman of the committee—3139.

Bennett, W. H. (East Simcoe)—3082.

Importance of examination into expenditure conducted in committee—3082. Difficulty in getting at truth; the case of the Collingwood Dry Dock Company—3082-84. Point of order raised—3084-86. Mr. Coste's connection with the Collingwood Company—3089. Evidence of Mr. Calderwood—3090-91. Proceedings in committee—3091-92. Futility of appealing to committee—3092. Perjury in committee—3093.

Bergeron, J. G. H. (Beauharnois)—3142.

Concerted action to prevent investigation—3142. Necessary to ask seemingly irrelevant questions—3142-3. How things were under the old regime—3143. Impossible to get at the truth in committee—3144. The Merwin case—3144. Investigation into corruption in elections—3144. Motion is simply a declaration of the rules of the British Parliament—3145.

Blain, Richard (Peel)—3070.

Right of minority on committee to appeal to House refused—3070. Thorough examination of accounts of some departments necessary—3070. Increase of expenditure in Speaker's department—3070-71. Developments from investigation of accounts—3071. Marine and Fisheries Department—Merwin contracts—3071. The Militia Department, sub-target-guns—3072-73. Railway departments—purchase of land in Moncton, N.B.—3073. Finance Department—Quebec bridge—3073-74. Where the middleman stands—3074.

Borden, R. L. (Carleton, Ont.)—3079.

Minority in a committee cannot present a report; the Drummond County Railway case—3079. Right of minority to appeal to the House; the Merwin case—3079-80. Right of appeal recognized in the past; a safeguard in the public interest—3081-82.

Boyce, A. C. (West Algoma)—3125.

Reasons why minority should have right to appeal to the House—3126-27. Witnesses not allowed to answer questions—3127. Scope of operation of committee should be widened—3130.

SUPPLY—REPORTS FROM PUBLIC ACCOUNTS COMMITTEE—Con.

Boyce, A. G.—Con.

Clarke, A. H. (South Essex)—3131.

Resolution reflects unnecessarily on committee—3131. Quotes Todd on principles relating to appointment of such committees—3132. Some regard must be had to rules of evidence—3133. Danger of too much freedom in questioning being allowed—3133-34. No precedent for practice proposed in resolution; quotes Todd—3135. Proceedings in British parliament—3135. The question of appeal—3136.

Foster, Hon. Geo. E. (North Toronto)—3106.

Right of minority to appeal to the House—3107. How investigation is blocked in committee—3108-10. All resolution asks for is to gain right of appeal to House—3112.

Fowler, Geo. W. (Kings and Albert)—3150.

New Brunswick election matters—3130. Councillor Clarence Goodspeed—3130-31.

German, W. M. (Welland)—3093.

Tories in employ of Liberal government—3093-4. Collingwood Shipbuilding Company—Mr. Coste's report—3094. Minority on committee can report to House—3095.

Johnston, Alex. (Cape Breton)—3139.

Members do not interrupt work of committee; refers to records for proof—3140. Tactics of the member for East Simcoe—3141-2.

Laurier, Rt. Hon. Sir Wilfrid (Prime Minister)—3075.

Motion one of want of confidence—3075. Minority has ample means to protect itself in the Public Accounts Committee—3076. Minority report forms part of proceedings and is reported to the House; quotes Bourinot—3076-77. Effect of proposed amendment—3078. Privileges of opposition in the House—3079.

Lavergne, Armand (Montmagny)—3095.

Freedom should be given to put questions in committee—3095-96. Parliamentary procedure provides a remedy—3096-97.

Maclean, A. K. (Lunenburg)—3113.

New Brunswick election fund—3113. Duty of Public Accounts Committee; quotes Bourinot—3115. Committee must have some power to determine line of inquiry—3117. The Merwin case—3118. Committee proceedings under Conservative government in 1891 and 1901—3119-21. No necessity for adoption of resolution—3122.

Sproule, T. S. (East Grey)—3097.

Not possible for minority of a committee to report to House—3097. Duties of members of parliament to inquire into public expenditures—3098. Refused access