

7—No question or motion can be regularly offered if it is substantially the same as one on which the judgment of the members has already been expressed during the meeting.

8—Any member may require the question under discussion to be read at any time of the debate, but not so as to interrupt a speaker.

9—A motion to adjourn is always in order and shall be voted on without debate, when there is a question under consideration ; when there is no such question under discussion, and the motion for adjournment is a substantive or main motion, a debate thereon is permissible, but it must be confined to the question of adjournment. A motion to adjourn cannot be amended, and must be simply: "That the meeting be now adjourned," or "That the debate be now adjourned." A motion, "That the Council do adjourn to a particular day or hour," or "That a debate be adjourned to a particular day or hour," is always amendable with respect to day or hour.

10—The presiding officer may at any time take the opinion of the members as to the length of time to be allowed for the discussion of any motion, and shall then, at her own discretion, limit the time for each speaker.
