

P R E F A C E.

THE following Notes have been selected with great attention from a variety of sources of general information respecting the Canadas, and were collected by an individual about to settle in the Upper Province. As they appeared to contain much useful information on the subject of Agriculture and Trade not hitherto so fully treated of in the